Picklesimer Reunion

Sunday August 19, 1934 the descendants of George Picklesimer deceased pioneer citizen of Cherokee county gathered at the home of Mr. Tom Picklesimer at Patrick in an annual family reunion. Sunday morning members of the family, relatives and friends began arriving with brimful baskets of chicken, pies, cakes, ect., which told the sort of activities that would take place around the noon hour. A large table was erected near the spring under the large trees where all gathered about 11 o'clock to enjoy a sumptuous dinner. Following the meal the hearts of the people were saddened as the rain began pattering down and those from long distance began talking of the journey homeward. The crowd began leaving early in the afternoon due to the inclemency of the weather which broke up the singing and talking which would have taken place in the afternoon. There were 174 present.

There were four children present of the late George Picklesimer deceased. John Picklesimer of Apison, Tenn., age 73 years, Mrs. Jane Eeley of Georgie age 75 years. Mr. Tom Picklesimer age 60 years and Mrs. Sarah Payne age 64 years both of Patrick.
