Methodist Clubs Have Banquet

A most delightful occasion was the banquet given on Friday night by the boys and girls of the "World Club" and "Justice Dept." of the Methodist Sunday school.

Traditional Christmas decorations were used in the banquet hall. Each window held a holly wreath tied with a bright bow. Tables were centered with holly arranged in attractive fashion, and tiny burning candles in gum drop holders marked each place.

The little guests came informally to the festive board singing the familiar carols of the Christmas season. Each cover bore a unique place card and colorful napkins accentuated the color note used in the decorations.

Bill Leatherwood acted as toastmaster and called upon Martha Faust and Mary Porter Fain who said the blessing. He then welcomed each one present and in turn Edna Baker responded for the teachers and Marion Axley for the members. At this time Katie Higgins paid tribute to Miss Josephine Heighway their leader and presented her with a friendship note. Miss Martha Nell Wells told in interesting fashion a Christmas story and the group sang another carol.

The banquet was served in three courses and was a highly enjoyable event.
