

MURPHY SCHOOL NEWS

The Reporter's club is sorry to have lost Juanita Vestal as one of the Grammar Grade reporters. We wish her a speedy recovery and hope she will be back with us soon.

Lorena Ledford is a newly appointed reporter of Grammar School news.

THE REPORTER'S CLUB

Ellen Cooper Axley

The Reporter's Club had a very interesting program last Monday. Miss Hatchcock told us what facts appeal to newspaper readers, and gave examples. One was: One ordinary bank cashier plus seven children equals no news; but one bank cashier minus one thousand dollars equals news.

We were sorry that many of the members could not attend the meeting because of a call meeting of the Glee Club.

HIGH SCHOOL CHAPEL

Aileen Hampton

On Tuesday, December 11, Mr. Bueck had charge of chapel exercise. He gave to the students some very interesting facts on Crime and Punishment.

This topic was directed by Albert Coats, teacher of Criminal Law, university of North Carolina. Mr. Coats was a friend of Mr. Bueck's in college. Mr. Bueck said that he was in the same class of law with Mr. Coats and that he (Coats) had the floor at every class meeting and a stand of making a more discussion of the topics before the class he preached a sermon on it. These facts about Mr. Coats did not hinder him from making and giving to the World some fine ideas on Crime and Punishment.

HISTORY STUDENTS TO STUDY THE PROPOSED CONSTITUTION FOR NORTH CAROLINA

By Rowena Mills

Beginning the second term's work the history students will make a study of the present constitution of North Carolina and the proposed Constitution. This announcement was made to the students by Miss Hatchcock on Friday. Having made a study of our Federal Constitution and found it quite interesting, we feel that it will be very worthwhile for us to study our state constitution.

For this study a book on Popular Government published by the Institute of Government, v. 10 used.

MURPHY MIDGETS PLAY PEACHTREE

On Friday, December 7, Murphy midgets played Peachtree at the new gym. The High school was turned out for the games. Both, the boys and girls games were interesting because the players were so small. #### THE FORENIC CLUB

Johnny Keenum

There was no regular meeting of the Forensic club last week, due to the fact that the Forensic club was sponsoring a program at this period. The chief attraction was a short pantomime "Swinging the Votes". Other attractions were songs by members of the faculty.

The admission charges, of the program were used to finance the trip to Mars Hill.

FACTS AND FIGURES

"Edna, who is cupid?" asked Mr. Dean.

He's some sort of God," answered Edna.

"No, I know," said Saly. "He's a wh—well I know one when I see it."

One day Mr. Deans began to sit down. The chair had been removed. When almost to the floor, he spoiled our fun by regaining his balance. He's just too agile.
