

Paraguay and Bolivia have just announced that they are violating the mandates of the League of Nations. Don't they feel bad about that?

"Iowa Governor Mentioned For Vice-Presidency" Headline. What for, hasn't Garner done and said nothing with great success?

Give Lifetime gifts of JEWELRY

The Gifts Par-Excellence

If you would present a gift of genuine and lasting excellence, give him, give her—jewelry.—We are offering real values—absolutely the best that can be found—in watches, rings, fountain pens and pencils.

JEWELRY for adornment will be the choice for 'her'. Jewelry of good taste and good design, with beautiful gems of excellence may be had at extremely low prices.

E. C. MOORE
MURPHY, N. C.

MURPHY SCHOOL NEWS

Continued from page six

Fifth period classes, Friday, 10:00 to 12:00 noon.
Sixth period classes, Friday 1:00 to 3:00 P. M.
All students must remain on examination at least one hour.
School ends, the first semester on Friday, Dec. 21. The second semester begins Tuesday, January 1.

REPORTER

Dick Mauney
(Miss Leatherwood—Fifth grade)
Miss Kathryn Morbon who has been a student of Miss Leatherwood, fifth grade has moved to Knoxville, Tenn., to live.

Miss Mauney—Sixth grade boys
"Honor Roll"
C. H. Camel, Hoyt Hembree, Harry Dickey, T. J. Hunt, Grover Hampton and Wiley Kinney.

(Mrs. Axley—Sixth grade girls)
The sixth grade girls have been making a study of Egypt and have made some very attractive drawings of this ancient land—interesting stories have been told and written during this study of Egypt.

JUNIOR MUSIC STUDY CLUB ORGANIZED

The Grammar school music pupils of Mrs. J. W. Davidson met Wednesday afternoon and organized a Junior Music Study Club.

- The following officers were elected:
 - President—Mary Frances Bell.
 - Vice-president—Virginia Lee Franklin.
 - Secretary-treasure—Roberta Carringer.
 - Critic—Louise Johnson.
 - Program committee: Marion Axley, Chairman, Jane Hill, Anna Ruth Carringer.
 - Social committee: Ruby Townson, chairman, Joe Howell, Mary Porter Fain.
- The by-laws and constitution were read and adopted after which the following program was given.
- "BARCAROLLE"—OFFEIBACH
 - Marion Axley
 - "The Pilgrims"—Jean Dickey.
 - "Melody of Love"—Roberta Carringer.

MALTBY

People in Maltby are very glad to see Mr. Gay Johnson home again after receiving a treatment at the Petrie hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Vinson Queen and daughter have returned from Asheville where they have been visiting Mrs. Queen's mother.

Mr. Andrew Collens and family made a business trip to Murphy Saturday.

Mr. J. P. Trull and Mr. Frank Craig both of Maltby are busy buying furs this week.

Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Rowland were visitors in Andrews Saturday.

Mr. Paul Coffey visited his wife and son, of Maltby this week.

Bub Baker and family moved from Matby weher they have been living a short while to Marble the past week.

As an educational study the club will use the textbook "Young Peoples History of Music."

The following members were enrolled:
Marion Axley, Mary Frances Bell, Jane Hill, Anna Ruth Carringer, Elizabeth Fanklin, Ruby Townson, Virginia Franklin, Jean Dickey, Helen Hampton, Effie Barbara McIver, Matine Moore, Justine Johnson, Jane Moore, Juanita Healey, Maurine Lovingood, Helen Wells, Margaret Howell, Mary Porter Fain, Louise Johnson, Magdalene Cooke, Roberta Carringer. Mrs. J. W. Davidson club counselor. The next meeting will be the first Wednesday in January.
Roberta Carringer, Secretary.

LIBERTY

Old man winter has been visiting this section. Which gives Mother nature a chance of picking her geese, and old "Santa Claus" preparing his sleigh and reindeers for his long journey before Christmas.

Rev. E. A. Beaver, filled his regular appointment at Rever Hill church Saturday and Sunday. A very large crowd was present and enjoyed his sermons.

Mr. John Picklesimer and Rev. E. A. Beavers were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Deaver Sunday.

Mr. Will Ledford and Mr. Otis Ledford were visitors of Mr. Edd Brown Monday.

Mr. Charlie Boring made a business trip to Mr. John Picklesimer's Saturday.

Mr. Ralph Hamby and Mr. Lester Ledford visited Mr. Condry Eller Saturday.

Mrs. Buna Williamson visited Mrs. M. T. Raper Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. K. W. Shearer and Mr. Lester Ledford motored to Cleveland Tuesday. They also visited Mr. and Mrs. Dan Adams, at Ocoll, Tenn., and were visitors of Copperhill.

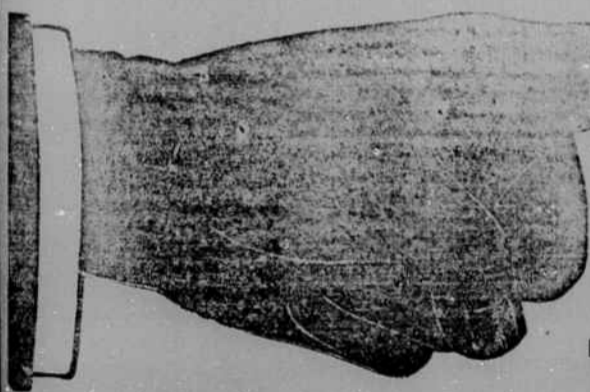

Mr. Edd Brown and Mr. S. H. Peid were Murphy visitors Monday.

Mr. Elmer Ledford, Mr. Lake Ledford and Mr. Lester Ledford were Ducktown visitors Monday.

Mrs. and Mrs. K. W. Shearer visited Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Deaver Sunday evening.

HATTIE PALMER
Notary Public
Scout Office

Go Home for Christmas
Travel in Safety and Comfort by Train
AT LOW COST
See L. & N. Ticket Agent for particulars

SPECIAL

ANNOUNCEMENT GRAND OPENING OF The Ideal Laundry & Cleaners

MONDAY, DECEMBER 17TH

If unforeseen circumstances do not delay

TEN Thousand dollars worth of the finest laundry equipment has been installed in the BURNS BUILDING and we are ready to serve the people of Murphy and surrounding towns and counties with absolutely the best and most modern laundering in this section.

It was our good fortune to get a rebuy on an up-to-date, fully equipped laundry that had never been set up. At the same time we added new machinery that will give greater and better service in dry cleaning of all kinds. The machinery in the IDEAL LAUNDRY was bought for a city plant and it is not duplicated in the usual small town laundry. We invite everyone to visit our new plant.

AT THE SAME TIME We take this method of THANKING OUR HUNDREDS OF CUSTOMERS that have patronized us since we started in the cleaning industry for ourselves last March. The business is greatly appreciated and we will strive to please more customers and render even BETTER SERVICE.

"LIVE AND LET LIVE" PRICES IS OUR MOTTO. THE FINEST QUALITY WORK AT THE LOWEST PRICES!

IDEAL LAUNDRY & CLEANERS

Wm. R. LLOYD, Prop.

MURPHY, NORTH CAROLINA