

SUBSCRIPTION CAMPAIGN WILL END SATURDAY PRIZES WILL BE GIVEN AWAY AT 3 O'CLOCK

AGRICULTURAL PLAN WILL BE BEGUN BY TVA

Mass Meeting Called To Hear Plan In Court House Saturday

The Tennessee Valley Authority's plan to aid in establishing demonstration farms throughout Cherokee county will be discussed at a general mass meeting in the courthouse in Murphy Saturday afternoon at 1 o'clock. A. Q. Ketter, county agent, announced Tuesday.

All farmers in the county have been asked to be present at the meeting at which W. W. Landes, administrative assistant of the agricultural division of the TVA, will explain the plan.

The tentative program, Mr. Ketter said, calls for the establishment of 20 demonstration farms in the county under TVA supervision. The local program is part of the general plan of the Authority to establish similar demonstration farms throughout the Tennessee valley territory.

The Cherokee county meeting follows the launching of the plan in Western North Carolina at a meeting of county agents and representatives held in Asheville last Friday where the gathering unanimously adopted the TVA proposal to share in benefiting the agricultural status of this section through the demonstration farm method.

"The TVA wants to help the farming industry of this section," Mr. Ketter said, "and I believe the farmers of Cherokee county will show they are interested and that they will qualify for the benefits of the program which is optional in the TVA territory."

Following the meeting Saturday
(Continued on page four)

NEW FURNITURE STORE OPEN FOR BUSINESS HERE

The new Cherokee Furniture company threw its doors open to the public Thursday morning with a complete line of brand new furniture on display.

The store is located in the building formerly occupied by the C. B. Hill furniture company as has recently been thoroughly renovated by the firm of Snyder and Long which owns stores in Bryson City and Sylva. Both the interior and the outside of the building have been refinished with attractive modern decorations.

The management is running a full page ad in this issue of the Scout informing the people of the formal opening of the store and announcing the wonderful bargains in all lines of furniture that they have on display.

They are particularly anxious that the public come in and greet them and look over their stock.

Murphy Teams Will Play Hayesville Here

The Murphy Boomers will attempt to continue their winning streak on the basketball court when they meet with Hayesville team here Friday night at 7 o'clock in the local gymnasium.

Both the girls' team and the boys' team will play assuring two good fast games to the local spectators.

Dr. Heighway's Office

Dr. S. C. Heighway, Murphy doctor and county coroner, will move his office over the new building now occupied by the Murphy Supply company, he announced this week. He will move on Feb. 5 and his hours will be from 8 a. m. until 2 p. m.

CHEROKEE COUNTY DINNER PLANS ARE NEAR COMPLETION

Final plans and arrangements were being made this week for the Cherokee county supper to be held at the Dickey hotel on Feb. 12. The dinner, featuring a complete variety of foods raised in Cherokee county, is annually sponsored by the local Lions club.

A number of committees appointed to arrange the dinner report progress in their respective capacities as to the place, time, menus, favors, program, decorations, place cards, food and other matters relative to the dinner.

The dining room of the Dickey hotel will be thrown open to club and its guests at 6:30. A sumptuous meal will be prepared by Lady Dickey's cooks and every dish that is possible to be obtained will be on display. If there is a sufficient quantity of the more unusual foods they will be served with the dinner courses. Otherwise they will be put on display, Mrs. Dickey said.

The courses of the dinner, will be interspersed with songs, skits, speeches and other numbers on the program. Following the dinner Guy O. Bagwell, district governor of the Lions club, and other speakers will give talks.

Mrs. Dickey has asked that anyone who has any unusual dish grown in the county to get in touch with her or Irvin Black who has been connected with the Dickey home for years.

MURPHY MAN IS FATALLY INJURED IN AUTO WRECK

Jim Stevens, 65, was killed and six others were badly hurt when two cars crashed at the intersection of highway No. 28 and the Copperhill-Ducktown road 18 miles south of here Saturday evening.

The others who were cut and bruised but later dismissed from the Ducktown hospital were: Fred Dickey and Vick Hubbard, both of Murphy, and Windol, Goldie, Harold and Spriggs Stiles all of Ducktown, Tenn.

Fred Dickey, driver of the car in which Stevens and Hubbard were riding, according to reports, pulled out on the Copperhill-Ducktown highway and was struck on the right front fender by the car in which the Stiles boys were riding. Stevens' head and chest were crushed and he died Sunday afternoon. Both cars were torn up.

Funeral services were held Monday afternoon at Grape Creek church with Rev. T. F. Higgins officiating. Burial was in the Grape Creek cemetery. Peyton G. Ivie was in charge of funeral arrangements.

Mr. Stevens is survived by one sister, Mrs. P. C. Gentry, of Murphy.

Sunday Schools Will Hold Convention Soon

The Sunday School Convention of the Western North Carolina Association will be held at the Peachtree Baptist church Sunday p. m., Feb. 10, 1935 at 3 o'clock (E. S. T.)

The following program will be rendered:

Devotional—H. B. Elliott, Peachtree.

Special music—Peachtree quartet.

"The Place of the Pastor in the Sunday School"—Rev. H. W. Baucom, Murphy.

"The Bible School as an Educational Institution"—Mrs. E. G. White, Notla.

Solo—Rev. Crowell Shearin.

"The Teacher's Responsibility in Explaining the Word of God"—Ernest D. Penland, Mt. Pleasant.

Closing Remarks by W. A. Adams, Hangingdog.

COOPER TALKS TO LEGION ON PATMAN BILL

Local Legionnaires Have Meeting In Library Here Tuesday Night

Harry P. Cooper, Murphy lawyer, was the main speaker at a special meeting of the Joe Miller Elkins post of the American legion which was widely attended by ex-service men from all over Cherokee county in the library club room Tuesday night.

A special meeting had been called of every post in North Carolina to listen to the radio talk of Hubert Olive, state commander of the American Legion posts, from Washington, scene of the argument of the Furman and Vinson bills concerning the ex-soldiers' bonus.

As there was no radio at the meeting, Col. Cooper explained briefly the effect of these bills on every ex-service man.

He spoke on the bill introduced by Representative Patman, of Texas, which would pay half of the soldiers' bonus due in 1945 at the present time as a relief measure, and the amendment offered by Representative Vinson, of Georgia, which calls for a percentage interest of reduction.

Following Mr. Cooper's remarks, the post voted to send wires to Congressman Zebulon Weaver, Senator Bob Reynolds and Senator Josiah Bailey to vote for the cash payment of the bonus as outlined in the Putman bill.

The meeting was presided over by local post commander Allen W. Lovingood.

A music program of string instruments and solos were rendered.

BASEBALL TEAM TO BE DISCUSSED AT MEETING HERE

Everyone interested in the local baseball team for the coming season has been requested to meet in the Scout office Wednesday night for a general discussion of plans for the coming year.

There are a number of important issues to come up before the meeting concerning the naming of a manager, the arrangement of a schedule, the acquirement of uniforms and the building of a grandstand.

A meeting was called two weeks ago but due to the fact that a basketball game was being played at that time, there was but a small representation present.

Everyone interested in the team in any way are urged to be present at the meeting.

Cases, Motions At Court Nearing End

Trials in the Cherokee county Superior court appeared to be about at an end this week and local barristers were rounding up the last of the cases and motions on the docket.

Judge J. A. Rousseau, of North Wilkesboro, has presided over this term of court that is trying only civil cases.

Southern Train Now Leaves At 8:15 A. M.

The schedule of the Southern train that formerly left here at 8:40 a. m. for Asheville was changed to 8:15 a. m. effective last Monday, Mrs. Thelma Dickey, postmistress said.

In consequence the post office will now open at 7:30 a. m. instead of 8 o'clock and the mail will be sent from the post office to the train at 7:45.

Under the new schedule the windows of the post office will close at 5:30 p. m. instead of 6:00 p. m. as they did formerly.

TVA PICTURE IS TO BE SHOWN HERE ON SUNDAY, MARCH 24

Arrangements have been made to have a full length film depicting all phases of the work of the Tennessee Valley authority shown at the Murphy theater here on Sunday afternoon March 24.

The picture will be sponsored by the Cherokee Scout and admission to the full hour, sound picture feature will be free. The picture, which has proved to be a main attraction in the cities was obtained by J. D. Blagg, unit chief, in charge of the local TVA surveys.

An educational picture throughout, it explains the purpose and the work of the TVA program. Music with the film is furnished by the United Marine band.

Following its showing in all parts of the country, the arrangements were made to bring the picture here at the request of a number of local citizens.

MRS. CLAYTON IS FATALLY BURNED FRIDAY MORNING

Mrs. E. M. Clayton, 78, was burned to death at her home two miles south of here early Friday morning when the house in which she was living burned down.

Mrs. Clayton, who was practically blind, is believed to have set her house on fire accidentally with a match when she got up in the night to look for a bottle of medicine.

Mrs. Baker, who was staying with her, gave the alarm and herself was badly burned trying to aid Mrs. Clayton.

Funeral services were conducted from the front yard of the home at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon with the Rev. T. F. Higgins, the Rev. Joannie Carper and the Rev. Fred Stiles officiating. Interment was in the old Murphy cemetery. W. D. Townson was in charge of the body.

She is survived by two sons, H. S. and H. C. Clayton, both of Murphy, and two daughters, Mrs. May Ellinberg, of Murphy, and Mrs. Fannie Dockery, of Miami, Fla.

Cattle Inspector In Murphy This Week

Dr. N. B. Tyler of the bureau of animals, has been here for the past week in connection with state department of agriculture, testing cattle in Cherokee and Clay counties. The results of the test, which are made upon application to the state department, are being forwarded to headquarters at Raleigh.

Dr. Tyler, who, with his wife, has been stopping at the Regal hotel here, plans to be here until Sunday.

Ministerial Conference To Be Held February 4

The Cherokee, Clay County Minister's Conference will meet at the First Baptist church, in Murphy, Monday, Feb. 4, 1935, at 10:00 a. m.

The program will be as follows:

Devotional—Rev. T. F. Higgins.

Open Discussion—What a preacher should preach in this modern age—led by Rev. W. A. Headden.

Talk—How to finance a church—Rev. W. H. Graham.

Sermon—Rev. T. W. Truett.

The public is cordially invited.

Methodist Church

Communion will be held at the Methodist church here Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. Rev. T. F. Higgins, Methodist pastor, announced Wednesday. Following the regular custom of the church sacrament is held the first Sunday morning of every month at the regular church hour.

HUNDREDS OF SUBSCRIPTIONS ADDED TO LIST

Higgins, Lee, Cooper Will Be In Charge Of Distribution Of Prizes

Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock one hundred dollars in prizes and cash will be given away in front of the Scout office.

At the same time the gigantic subscription campaign, heralded a great success in every way, will close and the price of the Cherokee Scout will go to $1.50 per year instead of the 75 cents per year subscription fee that has been in force since the great circulation drive began.

A committee composed of Rev. T. F. Higgins, Dale Lee and Harry P. Cooper will be in charge of the giving away of the prizes from the platform of a truck that will be parked in the middle of the street directly in front of the Scout office.

The committee will announce the winners and their names will be published in the next issue of the Scout. If they are not present their numbers will be published in The Scout and they must claim the prizes in one week or another number will be published.

The grand prize is a beautiful cabinet Philco radio and the other five prizes will be in cash money, ranging from $15.00 to $2.00.

Hundreds of subscriptions in Cherokee county have been added to the Scout's ever-growing list and those that have not taken advantage of the special rate of 75 cents per year are urged to do so at once before the price goes up.

A great deal of enthusiasm has been worked up over the lowered rate of The Cherokee Scout and the distribution of the prizes ever since
(Continued on page four)

W. M. FAIN NAMED MURPHY CANNERY ASSOCIATION HEAD

W. M. Fain of Murphy, was elected president of the board of directors of the Murphy Cannery association at its regular meeting last week in the court house here. Mrs. John C. Campbell, of Brasstown, was named vice-chairman and Dale Lee was made secretary and treasurer. At the same time R. R. Beal, of Murphy, was elected to the board of directors.

Discussions were held as to the obtaining of a manager for the local cannery and the benefits of the cannery to this section.

A motion was passed that a delegation consisting of the manager and one or more members of the board attend the meeting of the Central Cooperative unit to be held in Waynesville in the near future.

Another motion was carried that the directors invite County Agent Allison, of Clay county, and County Agent Chandler, of Union county, Ga., which counties will be instrumental in furnishing vegetables to the local cannery a TVAC unit, to the next meeting.

Cherokee County Fair Association Will Meet

A meeting of the Cherokee County Fair association has been called immediately after the TVA meeting for farmers in the court house Saturday afternoon, A. Q. Ketter, county agent, has announced.

Plans for the fair to be held this fall will be discussed at the meeting. It is the first meeting of the year and the association is getting an early start so that the fair will be even bigger and better this year than it was last year.