Timely Farm Questions

QUESTION: How can I tell when my chickens have worms?

ANSWER: Birds that are heavily infested with these parasites are usually quite thin, there is a drawn appearance of the face parts, and sometimes a fading of the eye. The birds are also sluggish and are invariably poor producers. When this condition appears in the flock several birds should be killed and the intestinal tract checked for worms. Before any medication, however you should see your county agent, as worming a flock must be done carefully to prevent the birds going into a moult.

QUESTION: What feed should be given a cow immediately after freshening?

ANSWER: For the first few days the feed should be very limited. Only bran mash should be used as the grain feed the first day after freshening. For the next four days the feed should consist of a mixture in equal parts of wheat bran and ground oats. A reasonable amount of legume hay and a small amount of silage may be fed during this period. On the fifth day the cow may be started on the regular milking ration and gradually brought to full feed over a period of three weeks from freshening date.

"Putting the Cart Before the Horse"

BORROWING money and not paying it back when due is like putting the cart before the horse, it gets you nowhere. "Easy Money" has hurt more than it has helped.

It is important to borrow money when you need it but it is equally important that you pay it back when due. That builds credit standing with your bank.

We are always ready and eager to lend money to responsible corporations, organizations and individuals. But we must make good loans and established credit gets most favorable attention.
