REHOBETH CHURCH PASTOR AND FAMILY POUNDED

A big pounding of rev. will waite, our local pastor, and his family was held at the manse last friday night and... (note: rehober church has decided to continue rev. waite as her pasture for another year at the same salary).

Just as the family were removing their outer garments to crawl into their respectable beds, the front door was suddenly pushed open and in rushed nearly ever member of the rehober congregation with baskets and bundles on their arms.

tears commenced to pour down the cheeks of the pasture and his family. they were all temporarily overcome with joy which remained unabated throughout the pounding. nice things was fetched to ever person of their household, but some of same fitted verry badly.

Yore correspondent carried some nice summer dresses and summer hats that will come in handy enduring next july and august. others fetched meat and chickens and different kinds of off-casted clothing. the pantry was pretty well stocked with provisions, that is— for a preacher. they should last him and his folks mought nigh a whole week.

after the tears ansoforth were wiped away, the organ was opened up and a large numbre of fine songs and tunes were sung and played. "shall we know each other better yonder" seemed to be the favorite and was repeated 3 times by request. everything was led by yore correspondent. rev. waite redressed himself and got a right smart of hilarity out of the pounding.

no bizness or religious matters were discussed at all. everybody was on hand for joy and sunshine and many harts overflowed with same. it was a happy re-union to all concerned, and bro. waite said that he will be able to preach with more vim and vivacity than heretofear onner count of knowing that his flock loves him again. hon. holsum moore made onle little suggestion, vizly: "kindly give us shorter sermons and lay off of money." then everybody went home. Yore corry spondent.

FLAT ROCK SOCIAL EVENTS

Miss Jennie veeve smith, our affiient scholl principle, is thinking of changing how to spell her name from smith to smythe. she has got far enough along in society to have a better sounding epithet than it is at present. she do not mean to marry annybody by the name of smythe; the other route has benn chose by her.

Dr. hubbert green is planning on putting an x-ray mashine upstairs over his drug stoar and going into the hospitille bizness in a small way. he has lost a great many patients here of late to the county seat doctors simply because he has not got anny mashinery to look inside of them to guess at what's wrong with them. good luck doc; yore patients should all be locked into.

our poleesman slipped back into flat rock last night and has reapplied for his old posish. he has benn off trying to play and pull a king eddards stunt of great brittan, but the lady he was seeking the love of everdently turned him down cold. he won't talk of love; but says what he wants is a chance to redeem hisself as an offiser of the law. he has not been passed on as yet.

hon. holsum moore's secont son, hansom moore has wrote back from hollywood (where he went on a hitch-hike) that he is now in the movies and asks everybody to watch out for the pitcher he will be in. it is called: "shooting the rappid." his part is a mob scene and he says he will be the 187th man that comes thru the big gate into the cow pastor where they are shot at. hurrah for another home boy who has made good.
