Miss Hattie Palmer, Phone 20

TO HER

You're the darlings' and loveliest of spouses
I'm the luckiest of husbands that I know;
But there's one thing in your conduct that arouses
All the fury that a man can show!

When I go to cleanse my dentals in the bathroom,
And the tube of paste is crumpled and awry,
I need interstellar space to give my wrath room,
And my temper seems to boil and fry!

All the virtues of true womanhood—you've got 'em
And your charms are multifarious and great,
But why won't you squeeze the tooth-paste from the bottom?
And why don't you screw the cap on straight?
