Mrs. McKee opened her address with a tribute to Mr. Bueck, superintendent of the schools of the Murphy unit, and Mrs. Bueck. She told the students they were experiencing "a culminating event in their lives", and advised them at this time to take a periodic check-up of themselves by asking these questions, "Am I selfish? Am I obedient? And Am I lazy?"

Mrs. McKee paid tribute to the character of the students by stating they were a product of the community from which they came and said all the students of Western North Carolina have an advantage in that "they come from the same, fine Anglo-Sax-son background."

Third Mad Dog Epidemic Hits Murphy Lately

Three children in Cherokee county were found to have been bitten by a mad dog Wednesday.

Upon a report from the state health department it was found that a dog belonging to Gay Johnson, of near Brasstown, was mad. Earlier the dog had bitten three of his children and some of the animals on his farm.

The third mad dog epidemic in Murphy in the past six months occur. ed last week when local police reported shooting several dogs which upon examination at Raleigh were found were found to be affected with rabbies.

Saturday Mayor J. B. Gray, on the recommendation of Dr. J. N. Hill, county health officer, ordered all dogs to be tied up for a period of 60 days.

One dog was shot Sunday, April 11, by Chief of Police Fred Johnson. Its head was later examined and the dog was found to have been mad. The dog was known to have bitten other dogs in town.

Murray who is connected with the Southern Railway here, and T. W. Axley, who is connected with the Cherokee Hardware company. All of the men are well known and are prominent in business affairs here.

Mr. Cooper, who as Cherokee ture introduced the bill extending the term of the mayor and board of alder-men of Murphy to two years, said he talked to A. A. F. Seawell the attor-ney general, in Raleigh last Wednesday and that he was advised that it was Mr. Seawell's opinion that the bill implied the two-year term would begin with the next election which will be held on May 4, rather than with passage of the bill.

No time was specified in the bill as to when the new term would begin. Registration books will close Saturday for the election, and Saturday, May 1, will be challenge day.
