from the text "Know ye not that the friendship of the world is an enemy of God and whosoever will be a friend to the world is an enemy of God." James 3:4. Some of the points he brought out are these: If we love things of the world better than we love God, we are an enemy to God even though we are not actively and consciously working against him; Friendship of the world is the root of sin and each of us must work out his own salvation with God before we cease to be his enemy; Sin brings condemnation but salvation brings love and mercy; The flood in the days of Noah was sent because of friendship of the world. Sunday communion service was observed and Rev. Winkler preached on Sunday night. Deacon Abernathy announced that the note to Mr. J. A. Timpson was paid and the church is out of debt. The house is yet to be ceiled and floored.

Vacation Days Make Heavy Wash Days....

The Laundry Can Free You from This Disagreeable Task

School is out again. Children are playing harder and getting dirtier. There are lots of extra soiled clothes to add to the burden of wash day. But the problem of keeping youngsters clean and neat is not so difficult when you send their clothes to the laundry.

As a matter of fact there is no real substitute for our laundry service. Through it you are assured of a cleaner, whiter wash because of scientific treatment of clothes. Our service affords complete freedom from wash day, the most disagreeable of all household tasks.

Moreover, home washing is false economy if you carefully figure all the costs involved. You may think you are saving but you are only needlessly slaving when you do the washing at home.

Let us take care of your wash day. Don't tire yourself out every week with a heavy wash.
