Why Do Some People Advertise?

Perhaps This Is The Answer:
Roger W. Babson says: "Advertising and selling will pay a big role in the coming boom." General Motors says: "We invested $40,000,000 in newspaper advertising during the past four years. It made sales of four billion dollars and profits exceeding $400,000,000." Peter Michelson of the Bank of America: "Banks, like industry, are coming out of the depression through the use of printer's ink." W. H. Kellogg, President of Kellogg Cereal Company: "The newspaper has been the backbone in our advertising field. The results have proved to us their value as prosperity builders." Jay Gould, President of Best Foods: "Newspaper advertising increased the sales of our company twenty percent." C. H. Chester, President of General Foods Corporation: "We are advertising our way out of the depression."
ADVERTISING IS NOT AN EXPENSE. IT IS A PROFIT BUILDER. It helped their business, it will help yours.

TRY-OUTS TO BE HELD FOR NEXT COMMUNITY PLAY

Open try-outs for the next play to be given by the Murphy Community players will be held in the Methodist church Friday night at 7 o'clock, Kenneth E. Bartlett, director of the club, announced Tuesday.

The play is a three-act comedy of American life entitled "Applesauce." The author is Barry Connors. It will begin immediately after the cast is chosen.

Mr. Bartlett is anxious to have a large number try out for the parts of the seven characters in the play as each is offered an excellent opportunity to display his acting ability. Everyone is invited to try out for a part in the play.

The characters are: Pa Robinson, a grouchy old man; Ma Robinson, his wife, who has to put up with him; Hazel, their charming daughter; Jennie, the village gossip with six kids; Bill McAllister, the suitor who is full of "applesauce"; Rollo Jenkins, the "other man"; who keeps his nose to the grindstone, and Matt McAllister, Bill's smalltime politician uncle.

Proceeds from the play will go to the Epworth League.
