VAN AND VERNON

MAVIS

BILL HARRIS

—in—
"Dancing That's Different"

(Five flashing femlaes who pound out rhythm in a new startling manner. From straight tap to and through intricate acrobatics, pyramiding and sensational ground tumbling these young ladies present the ultimate in the modern dance).

—in—
"The Old Hoke".

(Laugh dictators. This couple of funsters bring house down with their delightful comedy chatter. Different, surprising, this is indeed an outstanding comedy moment).

—in—
"The Nimble Feet"

(This young lady proves that there is always a different way of dancing and that is exceptionally good one).

—in—
"Clari-NUT To You"

(This young chap's uncanny way of handling clarinette stops the show cold and establishes him as favorite of any audience.

FRED ARDATH AND CO.

"The Party Is Over, But The Memory Lingers On."

(For years being standard next to closing comedy act this attractive laughs its way straight to your hearts. Fred Ardath's unimitable impersonation of a drunk rocks the house from top to bottom).

SHARON CLARK

—in—
"Say It With Songs".

(Miss Sharon Clark is after your heart in the way she interprets blue songs. Hearing—believing. You must hear yourselves to appreciate).

KOCH SISTERS

—in—
"Dancing Team"

(Shapely and personable tapsters these twins make an appearance for some rhythm rope skipping and win the audience over unusual offering).

The Russian Cossacks

Musical Group of Distinction

(Six pieces playing Red, Hot and Blue with a range from Swing to the classica. These boys make audiences everywhere give themselves up completely to music. A splendid musical offering).
