State 4-H Dairy Teams To Win Columbus Trips

For the first time in 4-H club work a dairy demonstration team from each state will have its way paid to the National Dairy Show, which this year is to be held in Columbus, Ohio, October 9-16. The trips are for the teams winning on demonstrations in breeding, growing, feeding, fitting and judging of dairy cattle and the proper handling of milk and cream on the farm.

The contest is open to all dairy club members and conducted from start to finish by extension leaders. It provides for county elimination contests, the winning teams to compete for state honors. Each member of the winning county team receives a special gold medal and the members of the runner-up team receive sterling silver medals. The demonstrations are to be conducted for the benefit of the public as well as for 4-H'ers.

At Columbus the State teams will compete first to determine sectional winners. Each member of the winning sectional team will receive a $250 college scholarship. The four sectional victors will then compete for national honors and each of the two members of the highest rating team will receive an additional $150 scholarship, making $2,300 in scholarships, which are provided with all other prizes by the Kraft-Phenix Cheese Corporation of Chicago as an aid to the 4-H dairy program.

Close behind were Texas and Michigan with 23 each.

At least 179 of the deaths were due to traffic mishaps; recorded drownings totaled 75. Five persons were shot to death in Arkansas, three in Texas and 1 in New York.

State To Build Huge Laboratory In Raleigh

RALEIGH June, 3.—Council of State has authorized the State Board of Health to issue revenue bonds in the sum of $160,000 for the erection of a modern laboratory building, which will be located on the Jones Street side of Caswell Square, in Raleigh. It will be known as the Clarence A. Shore Memorial Building, in memory of the late Dr. Shore, first director of the State Laboratory of Hygiene who served in that capacity from December, 1907, to February, 1933. His successor, Dr. John H. Hamilton, was named in May, 1933.

Action by the Council of State followed a conference with Dr. Carl V. Reynolds, State Health Officer, and Dr. Hamilton. Work on the new building, which will have a ground area of 130 by 50 feet, will begin as soon as the necessary formalities are gone through with, and it is expected it will be ready for occupancy within the next year. It will be three stories high and will, if possible, be built entirely of North Carolina material, the exterior to be either of stone or brick, but, in any event, the entire structure will be fireproof, also vibration proof.

Adverse Decree Fails To Disturb Windsor, Wally

MONTS, France, June 3. — The Duke of Windsor and Mrs. Wallis Warfield happily discussed plans for their honeymoon Saturday apparently far from disturbed by the action of the crown in depriving Mrs. Warfield of royal status after next Thursday's wedding ceremony.

Publication of the official order in London establishing the duke's royal status but barring the duchess and any possible children, came as no surprise to them.

King George VI telephoned to his brother several days ago, advising him regretful of the decision which he felt obliged to make. Both the duke and Mrs. Warfield took it in

BABY BOY "DIES" 3 TIMES DURING HIS OPERATION

Columbus, Ga., June 3.—A five-year-old baby with a .32-calibre bullet in his brain "died" three times on an operating table Monday before surgeons gave up the fight to save his life.

Jerked back to life twice by powerful stimulants after his heart stopped beating, Bobbie McElvey, 5, finally died and surgeons were unable to revive him.

The child, son of C. A. McElvey, prominent dairyman near here, was shot accidentally by Beatrice Taylor, 13, a negro maid in the McElvey home.

The maid had taken the .32-calibre pistol from a mantel and playfully pointed it at the baby when it accidentally was discharged. The bullet tipped into the baby's brain.

Mrs. McElvey rushed the baby to a hospital here where Drs. F. T. Norman, I. C. Evans and Bert Tillery began an immediate operation on the brain.

Twice as they sought to remove the bullet, Bobbie stopped breathing and their stethoscopes were unable to detect the slightest trace of a heart beat. To all evidence, he was dead. Both times however the doctors administered a powerful injection of coramine. Both times Bobbie's heart fluttered began beating again and breathing resumed.

As the operation neared completion however, strain on the child's heart became too great. His pulse faltered finally stopped, and an additional injection of coramine failed to revive him.

Authorities, terming the shooting accidental, said no charges would be made against the negro maid.

After their marriage, the former king will be known as "His Royal Highness, the Duke of Windsor." And his bride will be "Her Grace, the Duchess of Windsor.
