Stillwell-Allen

CULLOWHEE, June 8.—The marriage of Miss Miriam Stillwell, of Cullowhee, daughter of Professor and Mrs. E. H. Stillwell, and Leonard Allen of Sylva, son of Mrs. Lloyd Allen, was solemnized this afternoon at the Cullowhee Baptist church, the Rev. P. L. Elliott officiating.

The church was decorated with mountain laurel, leucothoes, and hemlock, and about a laurel covered arch stood tall baskets of laurel.

After the playing of "Liebestraum" by Miss Kate Stillwell, sister of the bride, Miss Rachel Coward of Cullowhee sang "At Dawning" and Dan Cook of Webster sang "The Sweetest Story Ever Told." The wedding March from "Lohengrin" was played as a recessional, and during the ceremony "To A Wild Rose" by McDowell was played.

The bride, who entered with her father, by whom she was given in marriage, wore a crepe and lace dress of the color of ashes of roses with white accessories. Her shoulder corsage was white gardenias.

The ushers were James Edwin Brown and Ben Battle of Cullowhee. An informal reception was held immediately following the ceremony at the bride's home for a limited number of relatives and friends. Following the reception, the couple left for White Lake and various points on the North Carolina coast.

The bride is a graduate of George Peabody college and a teacher in the Murphy city schools; the groom is a graduate of the Sylva Collegiate institute and joint-proprietor of the Sylva Radio shop.

TVA Ladies Honor Mrs. A. E. Morgan

The wives of the men who are employed by the TVA in Murphy and the surrounding area entertained Mrs. A. E. Morgan, wife of Dr. A. E. Morgan, Chairman of the Board of Directors of T. V. A., at a luncheon on Friday, June 4, at the Henry House. The guests, as they entered, were greeted by Mrs. L. G. Phifer, who directed them to the register which was presided over by Mrs. Albert Stanford and Mrs. Howard Hayes. Mrs. W. B. Richardson, was the general chairman of the luncheon, then led the guests into the dining room where a pink and blue motif was effectively carried out. Each table was centered with a bowl of pink and blue larkspur flanked on either side by tall pink tapers in crystal holders. Trailing vines of ivy were artistically arranged on each side of the centerpiece, and each place was marked by a nosegay of sweetpeas.

Following the three course luncheon, Mrs. T. T. Lindsey introduced Mrs. Morgan who spoke to the T. V. A. ladies on the subject, "How The T. V. A. Wives May Be Helpful." She emphasized the fact that the general social trend seemed to be reverting back to a love for the simple things of life, that is, simplicity in home life, in living habits, entertainment, and so on. And citing several passages taken from Veblen's book, "The Theory of the Leisure Class," she clearly illustrated her meaning. Mrs. Morgan, who herself has a home in Norris, spoke of the convenient homes that the women may have at Hiwassee Dam, and how easily they may become adapted and fully enjoy living a simple yet happy life. And by so doing, each wife might fulfill her task of being a truly helpful wife.

Mrs. Morgan also expressed her pleasure at being able to meet with the TVA women of this region and hoped to be here again in the near future.

Other guests of honor were Mrs. C. E. Blee, Mrs. O. Laurgaard, and Mrs. John C. Campbell.

The TVA women attending were: Mesdames: Laura McElfresh, Purd Tatham, E. F. McElfresh, Dunn Lawrence, T. T. Lindsey, Howard M. Hayes, Claude Harrington, Lex Phifer, James Smallshaw, Charles T.
