MISTER, if you like an undershirt snug-grip your ribs with a featherweight grip—HANES is your dish! No matter how much these shirts are washed, they look and feel clean-cut!

Here's another thing: You tuck the tail away in the morning, and find it still there at night—not wadded around your waist. HANES is too long for that! See a HANES Dealer today and ask for HANES Shorts too. Legs, crotch and seat are cut to keep you free from friction. P. H. Hanes Knitting Co., Winston-Salem, N. C.

Says Grape Juice Is Easily Made At Home

Appetizing, healthful grape juice can be made easily and quickly at home with but little equipment, said Mrs. Cornelia C. Morris, State College extension economist in food conservation.

A crusher of some kind is necessary. In making large quantities, a cider mill may be used, or a wooden crusher can be made. For small quantities, a potato masher will serve the purpose.

Buckets for holding the juice, cheese cloth and flannel for straining, a large pan for heating the fruit, and a wash boiler for pasteurizing completes the list of equipment.

Most of the muscadine grapes make excellent juice with fine flavor, Mrs. Morris continued. The Thomas grape makes perhaps the best of all and does not require the addition of any sugar.

She also stated that cold pressed juice is superior in flavor to hot pressed juice. Only sound, ripe fruit should be used.

In the cold pressed method, crush the grapes and strain through cheese cloth, then let the juice stand one hour. This should be strained or filtered through flannel poured into jars or bottles, and pasteurized for one or two minutes at 185 degrees fahrenheit.

After it has stood for eight months, syphon off the juice and repasteurize.

Misses Bertha Dye and sister, Gladys visited Miss Nora Bell Clonts Friday.

Strength During MIDDLE LIFE

Strength is extra-important for women going through the change of life. Then the body needs the very best nourishment to fortify it against the changes that are taking place.

In such cases, Cardui has proved helpful to many women. It increases the appetite and aids digestion, favoring more complete transformation of food into living tissue, resulting in improved nutrition and building up and strengthening of the whole system.

MRS. W. H. HUGHES OF MARTINS CREEK BURIED ON SEPT. 1

Funeral services for Mrs. W. H. Hughes, 75, of Murphy, Route 2, were conducted Wednesday morning, September 1, at New Martin's Creek Baptist church. The Rev. Ham Coffee officiated. Interment was in the church cemetery.

Better known as "Aunt Mary" by the whole community she departed with the death angels to her awaiting mansion in heaven on August 31 at 3:30 in the morning after being an invalid for nearly five years.

She has been a loyal member of the Martin's Creek Baptist church for a number of years. She had friends and relatives far and near all over the whole county.

She was the mother of eight children. She is survived by seven children; Mayford, Aster, Arzo, and Ernest, all of Murphy, Route 2; and Rollin, of Atlanta, Ga. The girls are: Mrs. D. C. Burger, of Decatur, Tenn., and Mrs. M. M. Taylor, of Frye, Ga.; one brother and one sister, Mr. John Ledford and Mrs. R. M. Whitmore, both of Murphy, also 45 grand children and 19 great grand children.

Pallbearers were: T. L. Martin, L. M. Ballew, W. R. Hughes, Lee Owenby, Felix Chastain and Elisha Hedden.

Flower girls were: Irlene and Lorraine Taylor, Hazel Lee, Josephine, Edna, Ruth, Emogene, Eunice and Nema Hughes; Louise and Dorothy Burger, Gladys, Bertha and Willie Owenby; and Blanche Henson.

The jail cells at Clinton, Ind., were too small for Steh Thurman 6 feet 6 inches tall, so he was turned over to his wife.

Charging that their wives preferred the city to life on the farm with them, John Baxter and his hon. Aquilla, farmers near Bloomfield, Ind., filed suits for divorce.
