Trio Hostesses To M. E. Missionary Society

The Methodist Missionary Society held its regular monthly meeting on Tuesday afternoon, at the home of Mrs. W. M. Fain, with Mrs. Tom Axley and Mrs. W. M. Axley as joint hostesses.

The meeting opened with the hymn, "Blessed Be The Tie That Binds", sung by the group, with Mrs. O. E. Madden at the piano. Mrs. W. E. Studstill, leader for the afternoon, presented an unusually interesting program. She first read the Call to Worship and then presented the Meditation Talk, "The New Society, followed by the Scripture Lesson taken from Luke 4: 18, 19; Matthew 5: 20; 6: 10; 18: 23-35. After a prayer, led by Mrs. Studstill, Miss Mildred Akin played two very lovely selections on her violin. "Love's Greeting" and "Believe Me If All Those Endearing Young Charms," accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Madden. The Missionary Topic, "Bringing Korea to Christ," telling of the schools in Korea and their conditions and of the Evangelistic work being done there, was very capably and nicely presented by Mrs. Studstill. Mrs. Studstill then sang the beautiful hymn, "If Christ Is Crowded Out", accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Madden. Mrs. J. H. McCall, President, had charge of the business meeting in which were included reports and discussions of plans for the last half of the year by chairmen of various committees and circles. The meeting closed with a prayer by Mrs. McCall.

An informal and delightful social hour was enjoyed on the lovely shady lawn at Mrs. Fain's home, where the hostesses served watermelon to the following: Mesdames S. D. Akin, Bessie Dickson, H. G. Elkins, W. H. Griffiths, J. H. McCall, Mattie Taylor, Laura McElfresh, O. E. Madden, E. B. Norvell, James Smallshaw, W. E. Studstill.
