

Active And Attractive MURPHY

Vol. 50.-No. 16.

THE LEADING WEEKLY NEWSPAPER IN WESTERN NORTH CAROLINA, COVERING A LARGE AND POTENTIALLY RICH TERRITORY Murphy, N. C. Thursday, Nov. 17, 1938

5c COPY $1.50 YEAR

REPUBLICANS WIN FIVE COUNTY OFFICES AS BALLOTS ARE COUNTED HERE TUESDAY

RITES ARE HELD HERE ON FRIDAY FOR DR. E. ADAMS

Death Of Prominent Murphy Physician Occurs Recently.

Funeral services for Dr. Edward Everand Adams, 39, prominent Cherokee county physician and civic leader here, were conducted at the First Baptist church in Murphy Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock with the Rev. J. C. Ammons, pastor, officiating. Interment was in White church cemetery at Hangingdog.

Dr. Adams who had been practicing medicine here for 15 years, died in St. Mary's hospital, Knoxville, Tenn., of pneumonia Thursday morn-He had been ill about a week Active pallbearers were: P. J. will begin at Henn, H. G. Elkins, Sam Carr, Frank until 1 a. m. Ellis, W. M. Fain, T. W. Kindley, Wembers Virgil Johnson and Allison Sherrill.

Honorary palbearers were mem-bers of the Murphy Lions club, of which Dr. Adams had served activly as secretary since its establishment il years ago, members of the medical and dental professions of Cher-okee county and Ralph and Howard Moody.

Born in Maryville, Tenn., the son of Dr. N. B. Adams, Murphy physician, who died about a year ago. and of Mrs. Adams, of Murphy, he moved to Cherokee county as a youth. He attended Murphy high school and college, Wake Forest college, and the Jefferson school of medicine of the University of Pennsylvania.

He graduated in 1921 and later went to Ellis Island to do medical work among immigrants. Later he General hospital, and then began to take several days. erved his internship at the Knoxville wassee Dam.

Lions club, he was secretary of the Cherokee County Medical Society and " member of other professional or-

Familiarly known as "Doc Ed" he was a favorite with the younger social set of the town and was proud of his association with the Murphy high school as its medical director, giving his services to the school's athletic teams, as he did in many other instances, free.

Surviving are his widow; one son, Edward, Jr., his mother, and a broth-

Weather Vane

Listed below are maximum and minimum temperatures for the past week compared with temperatures

	- omitte berne		COLUMN TO SERVICE STREET
	TEMPE	RATUI	RES
	1938	100	1937
Date	Max.	Min.	Max.	Min
9	62	22	64	50
10	73	27	67	52
11	76	38	61	48
12	77	35	62	51
13	74	48	67	41
14	69	39	61	29
15		21	58	29
RAINFALL INCHES 1020				1937
oince	November 1		1.61	0.16
Since	January 1	5	0.79	48.70

First Issue Of School Paper Is Success

The first issue of "The Mountaineer", new semi-monthly publica-tion of the Murphy High School, proved an overwhelming success this week. The several hundred copies printed were disposed of in no time.

The editorial staff is headed by Malcolm Crotzer while Louis Shields is business manager. Miss Elizabeth Strickland is the faculty advisor of the publication.

Funds From Dance To Be Used For Children

The Hiwassee Dam Womans club will sponsor a dance at the village auditorium Friday night. The proceeds of the dance will be used for a Christmas party for children and presents for needy children.

Von McLane's Swingsters will furnish the music for the dance which will begin at 9:30 p. m. and continue Five dollars in prizes will be given. Members of the Womans club are hoping for a large crowd to attend another in its series of berefit dances.

MURPHY LAUNDRY IS BEING MOVED TO NEW QUARTERS

The Murphy Laundry was being moved to its new and spacious quar-ters on Valley River avenue this week.

B. B. Cornwell, owner of the launreceived his education at Mars Hill dry and dry cleaning establishment. is supervising the installation of new machinery and the removal of some equipment now being used in the present plant which was purchased by the TVA as part of the area to be impounded by waters backed up by Hi-

Mr. Cornwell expects the removal

For a time he was co-owner of a hospital in Murphy, with Dr. J. N. Hill as his partner. In 1925 he married Miss Lilla M. Cooler.

The new brick building is modern in every respect and a great deal of new machinery is being added the present equipment.

A new department of the popular new machinery is being added the dry cleaning and laundry establishment will be the addition of a shoe repair shop, Mr. Cornwell states.

ing, were held at 2 o'clock Saturday

Dulin, officiated, assisted by the Rev.

H. Clay Whitaker. Burial was in the Masons served as active palibearers

and members of the Cheroke county chapter of the United Daughters of the Confderacy were flower bearers.

10, 1848, in the house where he died.

He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. James

Stewart, who moved here from Caldwell county in 1846. At the age of

16. Mr. Stewart enlisted in Company

I, 69th North Carolina regiment and served in what was known as Thom-

In 1867 Mr. Stewart was married

He is survived by one daughter.

to Miss Mary Jane Grant, who died of a physician.

Mr. Stewart was born November

Andrews cemetery.

as' Legion.

40 years ago.

J. E. STEWART, CIVIL WAR VETERAN,

DIES AT HOME NEAR ANDREWS FRIDAY

Funeral services for Joseph Ed- North Wilkesboro; one sister Miss long trip.

etained

mond Stewart, 90, Confederate veter- Kate Stewart of Andrews, and one an and prominent farmer, who died at his home in Andrews Friday morn-

J. T. L. Hartness, Of Mineral Bluff. Buried Wednesday,

Funeral services for J. T. L. Hartiess, life-long resident of this section, were conducted from the Shady Grove Baptist church Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock with the Rev. Thomas W. Truett, the pastor, officiating, Interment was in the church cemetery

Mr. Hartness, a former posimaster in Cherokee county, died at his home near Mineral Bluff, Ga., Tuesday.

Mr. Hartness was born and reared ir. Cherokea County. His father, who was a prominent farmer, served in the Civil war and was killed at the battle of Kennesaw Mountain.

In his early life, Mr. Hartness was school teacher in Cherokee counand always held a prominent place in the civic and political life in the county. For the past 40 years he had been in the mercantile business. He was an active member of the Musonic lodge at Mineral Bluff and the Odd Fellows.

When he was 21, Mr. Hartness married Miss Tilly Ann James, and after her death he was married to Miss Etta Johnson.

Masonic rites were held at the funeral with Masons acting as pallbearers.

Surviving are: his widow; six sons C. A. Hartness, of Wilford, Ark., H. H. Hartness, of Pittsburgh, Pa., J. R. and J. Frank Hartness, both of Chattanooga, Tenn., and Cecil and Owen Irartness, both of Mineral Bluff, and five daughters, Mrs. H. H. Trippe, Mrs. S. S. Haffley and Mrs. A. B. Misses Tina and Nina Hartness, both of Mineral Bluff.

Former Murphy Man Is Visitor Here

Mr. James P. Curtis, who was formerly employed in the Murphy Furniture factory here, now of Elkins, N. C., came to Murphy for the first time in 24 years the other day.

Mr. Curtis was visiting friends here whom he associated with during his years of residence here.

He had planned to attend the reunion held at Gettysburg, Pa., last cided he was not able to make the

He was actively engaged in farming during the past summer. He had lier years was bear hunting and he

church when he was a young man.

One room of his home was used as a hospital during the War between the

Streams In Cherokee County Are Restocked

About 50,000 brook and rainbow trout have been shipped into Cherokee county from the state fish hatchery at Waynesville the past week to restock public fishing streams.

The distribution of the fish done by the state fish and game protector under the supervision of D. M Birthfield, Cherokee county game

Mr. Birchfield says the fish were of good size and should greatly improve fishing in this county.

Opie Clayton Improves After Auto Crash

Opie Clayton, of Brasstown, who was injured in an automobile collision near Brasstown Sunday afternoon, Nov. 6, returned to his home this week from the Petrie hospital here where he had been confined since the crash.

Mr. Clayton's car collied with another car but on one else was seriously injured, although Mr. Clayton's ear was completely demolished.

Another wreck of less serious consequence occurred near the same place that night

Court Adjourned Here On Monday Evening

The regular November term of Murphy last Thursday morning was completed Monday afternoon. Judge Felix E. Alley, of Waynesville, presided.

Not many cases were tried in either the criminal or civil dockets due to Barton (R) 3320; for representative Potts, all of Chattanooga, Tenn., and the referest taken in the aftermath Clyde H. Jarrett (R) 3599, J. N. of the elections held in Cherokee Moody (D) 3438; for county surveycounty.

> being accomplished so all cases were Harry Miller (D) 3609, Dr. Fred L. ried that had to have attention at Herbert (R) 3394. this term of court and the others, including the Lansford-Spivey shooting case, were continued. Charlie In the first district (Valleytown Lunsford, who said he shot Lawrence area) E. A. Wood (D) received 1063 this term of court and the others, Lunsford's home on October 30 in self-defense, was placed under bond.

Man, Cut By Knife, Is Slowly Improving

An improvement is reported in the condition of Arthur J. Smith, 22year-old Robbinsville youth who was wounded with a knife at a tourist camp above Andrews on Nov. 6.

Smith was brought to the Petrie hospital here with a wound in his chest after he allegedly had an argucr, Bill, all of Murphy, and a brother, Ernest, of Maryville, Tenn. ment with another man who fled in he had cut Smith.

> Attaches at the hospital said Thursday morning he was 'slowly improving.

his hearing but his eyesight was not so good. Mr. Stewart was semingly hale and hearty until Andrews Lutherans ie succumbed to a stroke of paralysis Friday morning. His hobby in ear-Get New Pastor always kept a pack of hounds.

"Uncle Jackie" as he was familiarly called joined the Methodist Rev. K. Y. Huddle, of Rockingham, Va., has accepted the call as St Androws' Luther Church, Andrews, N. C., effective Regular services will be held Sun-States, His mother was the daughter day A. M., Dec. 11th, at 10:00 A. M. E. S. T. Sunday School at 11:00 o'-Of the large number of men enlistclock. All members of the Lutheran ed in the Confederate army from church are urged to attend these ser-Mrs. Norma Straine, of Franklin; Cherokee county, U. E. Kelly of near three sons Robert of New York City; Suit, is the only surviving member of tended members of all other Churches.

OTHER TICKETS GO DEMOCRATIC AFTER CHARGES

Elections Board Overrules Petition For Recounting

In an official coupt Tuesday of ballots cast in the general election held in Cherokee county a week before, Republicans gained five county offices and two township offices, while state, congressional and district state senatorial offices went to the Democrats

The official count was made after the county board of elections overruled a petition charging irregularities and asking a recount of the county's ballot boxes by three Democratic candidates for county offices. Fred O. Bates, chairman of the the board of elections, said J. N. Moody seeking the office of repre-sentative, L. L. Mason seeking another term as sheriff and Winslow McIver seeking the office of clerk of the Superior court, announced they would appeal their petition accompanied by nine affidavtis charging regularities at the polls in the county to the state board of elections.

Townson Is Elected

The official count revealed that Carl Townson (R) defeated L. L. Superior court which convened in Mason (D) for sheriff by a majority of 64 votes.

The returns were: for clerk of the Court, John Donley (R) 3623, Wirs-low McIver (D) 3424; for register of deeds, B. L. Pargett (D) 3786, Henry Judge Alley said very little was or, O. G. Anderson (k) 3452, Lon Raper (D) 3408; for coroner, Dr.

The Democrats gained two of the Spivey, his brother-in-law, fatally at votes and Henry G. Dills 788 votes. In the second District (Murphy) T. P. Calhoun (D) received 1293 votes and E. P. Hawkins (R) received 1729. In the third district (lower end Continued on back page

Murphy To Meet Hall's High Here On Friday

The Murphy Bulldogs will pit their prowess of running and passthe pigskin and shin-busting defensive work here against the strong Hall's High school team of Knoxville, Tenn., Friday afternoon at 1 o'clock, it was announced by K. C. Wright, athletic director of the

The game is sort of a surprise contest as no game had been scheduled for this week-end for the Bulldogs and few people here had ever heard of Hall's high school suvurban Knoxville.

Coach J. A. Pitzer said that the visiting team, reputed to be an unusually tough high school aggregation when it comes to doing things in a gridiron way, is coached by Paul Lahman, who played baseball with the Murphy team on several occasions the past season.

Mr. Wright, in arranging for the last home game of the season for the Bulldogs and next to the last game which is with Andrews on Thanksgiving Day, expects a huge turnout for the contest.

COUNTY VOTE BY PRECINTS WILL BE FOUND ON BACK PAGE