BATES CREEK SCHOOL NEWS

The children of Bates Creek school are now very proud of their school rooms since they have been painted. The brown and ivory color scheme makes the rooms much more attractive as well as much lighter.
 The children and teachers wish to express their appreciation to the parents and patrons who made this improvement possible. A quilt was made and sold to obtain the money for the paint and WPA assistance was given for painting the rooms.
 A Thanksgiving program was given by the children at Bates Creek School Thursday morning. The program included Thanksgiving plays, songs, and poems.
 After the program there was a community dinner. The lunches were spread on the school tables.

Mr. George Hembree returned thanks. The following visitors were present: Mr. and Mrs. John Seabolt, Mrs. Charlie Woods, Misses June K. Jan, Girdlean Dillard, Bessie Davis, Grace Dockery, Bertha Killian, and Dorothy James, Messrs Jeff Crain, George Hembree, Buster Seabolt, Andrew Keffart, and Ray Dockery.

"VOUCHER" Means What It Says

"Voucher", as applied to cancelled checks, is a reminder that they stand ready to vouch for you in case of questioned payment. The endorsement of the payee on the back, and our cancellation, are evidence in a court of law—evidence seldom questioned.

If you do not already use checks to pay personal and business bills, come in and find out how conveniently and economically you can obtain this protection.
