Date For First Andrews Boxing Tournament Set

The date for the opening of the First Annual Amateur Boxing Tournament to be held at Andrews has been set for April 6-7-8, 1939. Entry blanks are being sent out this week and all amateur fighters should secure one and, properly filled, send it to Ned J. Tucker, Andrews, North Carolina, before the closing date on April 5th.

Boxing is one of the oldest sports known to man. It is interesting and entertaining to the contestant and the spectator. It is not complicated or difficult to understand and much fun to be had by both participant and spectator. Athletic Coaches and Civic leaders should encourage the boys in their community to enter and take part in the sport of boxing. The purpose of the Andrews Tournament is to help to revive in this section this sport of the Ancients so that we may have the benefits derived from it. Pledge yourself to help make this affair a great success.

The Andrews Gymnasium is fortunate in having a standard boxing ring, with well padded ropes, and a two inch mat for floor covering. This reduces the chances of injury to the contestant to the very minimum.

All amateurs should be hard at work during the next two weeks in preparation for the Andrews event. Good, wholesome fun is to be had by all entrants and CHAMPIONS will be awarded trophies on the final night. This is the first event of its kind to be held in this section so lets make it a big success and bring boxing to the front as a major sport in our schools.
