MISS POSEY IS NAMED HEAD OF MURPHY U. D. C. AT MEETING

Miss Sara Ruth Posey, of Murphy, was elected president of the Fort Butler chapter of the United Daughters of the Confederacy at a re-organization meeting held Wednesday evening at the Murphy Public Carnegie library. Mrs. Giles W. Cover, Sr., past director of the first district and past president of the Cherokee County Chapter of the United Daughters of the Confederacy, presided.

Other officers elected were: Mrs. J. W. Davidson, vice-president; Mrs. W. A. Hoover, secretary; Mrs. Henry Axley, treasurer; Mrs. Mollie Miller, chaplain; Mrs. H. Bueck, registrar and Mrs. John Hollingshead.

Mrs. L. E. Fisher, of Asheville, president of the North Carolina Division of the United Daughters of the Confederacy, and Mrs. S. E. Mauney, of Old Fort, director of the First district and six members of the Cherokee county chapter of Andrews, met with the Murphy group and assisted in the re-organization of the chapter.

A short talk was made by Mrs. Mauney who introduced the state president. Mrs. Fisher opened her address with an expression of realization of the great responsibility she feels as president of the North Carolina division. Mrs. Fisher was former director of the First district at which time the Murphy chapter was organized.

Mrs. Fisher took up the various objectives of the U. D. C. including, Education, benevolent, memorial and social. She paid a glowing tribute to Robert E. Lee, and Stonewall Jackson Confederate leaders. She stated that the major work this year was to complete the Jefferson Davis, president of the Confederate states, memorial. Mrs. Fisher emphasized the purpose of the U. D. C.; was to keep alive the truth of Confederate history and to perpetuate the things for which our forefathers stood. The state president also stressed the need of gaining new members and especially young women to keep the work going. In closing, Mrs. Fisher in her usual charming manner true to the Old South, extended a most cordial invitation to attend the district meeting to be held at the George Vanderbilt hotel in Asheville early in May and also to the General meeting to be held in Charleston, S. C., in the fall.

Who knows most about Building cars?

Ford has built more than one-third of all the automobiles ever built in the world

THERE are more Ford cars in use today than any other make. And there are more Ford V-8s than any other 8-cylinder car.

The 1939 Ford V-8 represents the broadest experience in building cars any manufacturer ever had. You will find values in it far beyond what any other maker can put into a car at the low Ford price.

Ford performance, traditional for a generation, has reached new heights in the 1939 V-8.

And now Ford style leadership is equally outstanding. "The smartest cars on the road" is the way owners describe their new Fords. Smartest in action. Smartest in appearance. Leaders, as they deserve to be.
