Young Musicians in Recital; Cover Themselves With Glory

Murphy, as usual, has reason to be proud of the splendid recital given by piano pupils of Mrs. Henry Akin. This program was the second of its kind presented this year.

Among those taking part was Roberta Lucas, who is a pupil of Mrs. C. W. Savage. Certainly there was very little that could be criticised in her performance.

It should be noticed that very little written music was in evidence. Practically all of the little troupers had memorized their music. Since space is too short to give a comment on the ability of each of those taking part, only the name of each and the selection is given below.

Louise Lynn—Millicent Wilson, Indian Medicine Man, Sailboats, Goldilocks Sleeps; Mary Lou Ferguson, A little night song (poem), The bears chase Goldilocks. Duet—First Violin of Spring, Florence Evelyn Gass, Tick Tock, Soldiers march, Pop corn lullaby; Roberta Lucas—Minuet by Mozart, Long, Long Ago—Williams, Happy Farmers—Schuman; Betty Lou Burch, March of the Wee Folk—Duet; Song Margaret and Florence, Safe in thy arms dear Jesus; Doris Bailey, Warbles of Spring; Mildred Hendrix, Major and minors Sing Robin, Sing; Mildred Clouse—Sparkling spray, music box, Barcarolle from tales from Hoffman; Jean McNew—Song Dear Miss Rose; Mary Forter Fain, March from Aida; Jean McNew—Sparkling Brook; Bert Anthony, Flower Song—Opera Faust, Jack Barnett, duet—Anvil chorus. Jean McNew, a duck.

A beautiful little sterling and black pin, given to the child who showed the best playing performance was awarded to Jean McNew after careful deliberation by the two judges, Mrs. Henry Axley and Mrs. C. W. Savage. A prize is awarded annually by Mrs. Akin and is greatly sought by the young stars.
