Date of President's Polio Ball Is Advanced to January 26

The annual Cherokee County President's Ball, for the benefit of sufferers from infantile paralysis, will be staged at Hiwassee Dam on the evening of January 26, instead of Jan. 27th, as at first planned. Mr. C. E. Blee, general chairman for the ball said the change in date was necessitated in order to get the desired orchestra.

The ball this year will be under different arrangements. Heretofore, most of the proceeds have gone to the National fund. From now on much of the money taken in will be devoted entirely to local sufferers from the dread disease—and according to County health officer, Whichard, they are many.

Entire management of the ball will

Chambers Wins Bride During Xmas Holidays

When Prof. C. B. Chambers, in charge of manual training work at the Murphy High School announced that he was going to his home in Kansas for the Christmas holidays, he didn't tell it all. Cupid was riding with him to the town of Towanda, where Miss Florence Reed, his long time sweetheart was waiting.

And so, when Prof. Chambers came back to Murphy, he brought a bride with him. He and Miss Reed were married in Towanda, Kansas, on December 28. The newlyweds are making their home with Mr. and Mrs. Willard Axley.

Miss Doris Bailey left Thursday to return to school in Trappe, Md. Before returning to school she visited her father for a few days in Marshall.
