Nantahala Scouts Hold Camporee In Joyce Kilmer Park

The boy scouts of the Nantahala District enjoyed a camporee held over the week end at the entrance of the Joyce Kilmer National Park. Features of the program were a discussion of our national forest, by W. L. Nothstein, district ranger of the U. S. forest service, stationed at Andrews; night games conducted by scouts Mac Brown and Charles Lee Brook of Asheville; religious services at the memorial rock in the park led by Floyd A. New, assistant scout executive, Asheville and by James T. Osborne, district commissioner, Andrews.

The regular court of honor was held Sunday afternoon with James T. Osborne presiding in the absence of the district chairman, K. C. Wright of Murphy.

Honors were presented to the following persons; Glen Matheson of Andrews, tenderfoot; Bruce Tilson of Robbinsville, tenderfoot; Jeff Davis of Robbinsville, first class; Bill Swan of Andrews, Joe Wiggins of Robbinsville, merit badges; and Jimmie Bales of Tapoco, Star Scout.

At the meeting it was announced that the new troop at Hayesville would be publically installed Wednesday evening, October 2. Following the public installation there will be a short conference of the troop committeemen of all the Troops in Nantahala District. The next district court of honor will be held November 5.

BUT WHY COURT-MARTIAL THE WHOLE REGIMENT?

THERE are bound to be one or two bad soldiers in every regiment. But why court-martial the whole regiment?

The same applies to beer retailing. Out of the 5,000 retailers in North Carolina, there is bound to be a small minority who disobey the law or permit anti-social conditions.

The Brewers and North Carolina Beer Distributors Committee wants even this small minority of undesirable beer retailers eliminated entirely. To that end, the Committee cooperates with law enforcement officers in securing the revocation of the retail licenses of these objectionable outlets. One hundred and two licenses have been revoked during the past year.

Back Subscriptions

DEAR SUBSCRIBER:

Uncle Sam says we must clean up our subscription list.

He has advised us that under Section 526 of the Postal Laws and Regulations, sending the paper to delinquent subscribers may cause us to lose our Second Class Mailing privilege.

Under the law we can be penalized for every delinquent subscription.

As you know, in the past, we have been more than willing to carry our friends along—and we would be glad to do so—but Uncle Sam Says NO!

We just can't argue with Uncle Sam. We don't believe you'd want us to.

So—would you please cooperate by bringing or sending your subscription at an early date?

High Prices Paid For 4-H Club Calves

The 4-H club boys shown above with their prize-winning baby beefs are happier and wealthier following the auction at the Western North Carolina Fair that closed Saturday at Hendersonville. Premium prices paid by three chain store companies that bought all 28 fat young steers will encourage 4-H club members to produce more and better beef, agricultural leaders said. At the top is the grand champion—an 820-pound, 11-month-old Hereford—that was bought by the A. and P. company for 25 cents a pound. Holding the calf is James Dugger, 13, of Vilas, in Watauga county, who raised it and with him is L. A. Bell, of Charlotte, buyer for the A. and P. At the bottom, left, is the reserve champion and Calvin Francis of Haywood county, who got 25 cents a pound from the Pender Grocery company for his 965-pounder. At the bottom, right, is John Edmisten of Watauga county and his 960-pound Hereford, second-place winner in the medium weight division, that Harry Falls of Asheville, at extreme right, bought for the Dixie-Home Stores at 19 cents a pound.
