

LETTERS TO SANTA CLAUS

stockings and tree ready. Your little friend, Louise Hyde.

Dear Santa:—I want you to bring me lots of toys and fruits and candy. I have my stockings ready for you. They are fixed neatly. I am 10 years old and I am going to school and I wish you a Merry Christmas. Your friend, Marven Mann.

Dear Santa:—I go to school and like it fine. My teacher is so sweet to us. Please Santa, don't be late and don't forget the little folks all over the world. I want you to bring me a teddy bear, some candy, some nuts, some apples and some oranges. I like to draw in school. I drew a Christmas tree. Your friend, Cinsker Mann.

Dear Santa:—I am a little girl 12 years old. I am in the fourth grade. I have been a good little girl. Please bring me a doll that will laugh and cry and open and shut her eyes. I want some more toys and a tea set. Bring me lots of oranges and nuts and candy and apples. Please give every little girl and boy some toys for Christmas. Your little friend, Delona Brown.

Dear Santa:—I will write you a few lines to tell you what I want for Christmas. I want a sleepy doll that will laugh and cry. I want you to bring me a sweater that is red, that has a zipper in front. Don't forget the other boys and girls. Please bring me some apples, oranges and nuts. Your little friend, Carmen Haney.

Dear Santa:—I want you to bring me some candy, some nuts, some apples and some oranges. The toys that I want you to bring me are a gun, a wagon, a bicycle, and some firecrackers. I guess I had better close. Your friend, Columbus Crisp.

Dear Santa:—I am a little girl and I am writing you a few lines to tell you what I want for Christmas. I want you to bring me a pair of gloves, a tooth brush, a tea set and a whole lot of nuts, oranges, apples, candy and bananas. Please bring all the other little girls and boys some toys too. From your little friend, Geneva Brown.

Dear Santa:—I will write you a few lines to tell you what I want for Christmas. Santa, will you please bring me a pair of gloves, a box of crayons, a little house set, a box of candy, and cake, nuts, oranges and apples. Now Santa, will you please bring these things. I have been the best little girl you ever saw. Your little friend, Lerrita Mann.

Dear Santa:—I am a little boy six years old and in the first grade. I am a good boy. I like to go to school. Santa, I sure do have a very sweet teacher. So Santa, I want you to bring me an airplane, frencharp, bicycle, books, train and oranges, apples, candy and nuts. Your little friend, Fred Junior Ledford.

Dear Santa:—I will write you a few lines to tell you what I wish you to bring me, for Christmas is almost here. I want a new dress and a pair of shoes and candy, apples, oranges, bananas and nuts and lots of other good things to eat and don't forget the other boys and girls. Bring them lots of things too. Well I will close at this. Will write more next Christmas. Helen Hartness.

Dear Santa:—Christmas is here. Please bring some things for Christmas and bring all the other boys and girls some too and don't forget them. Bring me some apples, oranges, coconuts, candy, bananas, nuts, nickles, wrist watch. Please don't forget them. Well, I will close for this year. Your friend, Frankie Hartness.

Dear Santa:—I want you to bring me a knife and some fire crackers and some oranges and apples and candy and nuts. I have been a good boy. Hadley Stiles.

Dear Santa:—I am a little girl 8 years old. I have not missed but one day. I have made A's and B's on my report card. I want you to bring me a doll that has brown eyes, a manicure set, a coloring book, also oranges, nuts, candy, raisins, apples, pears, a red sweater with a zipper in the front. Don't forget the other little boys and girls. We are painting pine burrs. We are going to have a Christmas play and say poems. We will have a good time. Merry Christmas, Doris Haney.

Dear Santa:—I will write you just a few lines this afternoon though it is almost Christmas. I am a girl of fifteen years old. What would please me so much would be a set of dishes, hair rollers, and a new dress, a box of powder and envelopes stamped for Christmas. Will you please bring them to me? Your friend, Leona Brown.

Dear Santa:—I am a little boy 11 years old and I want you to bring me some nuts and oranges and candy and please bring me a wagon, frencharp and a gun and bookbag and it full of firecrackers. Your friend, Wilburn Haney.

Dear Santa:—Since Christmas time is nearly here and I am thinking of you so much I thought I would write and tell you what I want you to bring me for Christmas, Santa. I am 11 years old and in the fifth grade. I have only missed two days of school. My teacher is very sweet to us. And Santa, please bring me a doll that sleeps, a doll carriage, and a tea set, a lot of candy, oranges, apples, nuts. Please Santa, bring all the little children all over the world something nice. Please Santa don't forget my little brothers and sisters as I was about to do. Your little friend, Kate Ledford. P. S. Santa I hope you won't freeze out in the snow going all over the world. But Santa remember you have a big red and white suit, don't you Santa?

Dear Santa:—My name is Eunace Henry. I am seven years old. I go to school every day. I go to Martins Creek school. I want you to bring me a doll, and a tea set, and ball, a iron, and a snow suit and that is all I want. Love, Eunace Henry.

An attack of sneezing which held Miss Juanita Lallis of Lamar, Ark., in its grip for six days, was finally stopped by a diet of garlic, according to her family physician. At times the young woman had sneezed as often as 15 times a minute.
