Charles Hyatt. . . .

the cat was broken down through the hips, but it was still game and in a furious fighting rage.
Charlie rolled down the window about two inches and leveled his pistol at the cat. It quivered as the first shot entered its body. It jerked violently as the second bullet struck, and then for the first time it howled in pain as the third shot clipped its spine.
"I got out of the cab then," Charlie said, "and went over to kill it with a stick, but it pulled itself up on its front legs and would have bitten my hand off if I had gotten within two feet of it."
"I shot that bobcat eleven times," he said, "and I give you my word of honor it wiggled and growled the eleventh time I shot it."
Charles was returning to Knoxville from Murphy where he had spent the week end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Hyatt, of Peachtree street. He was accompanied by Jack Carringer.
The bobcat weighed 17 pounds, and you can take Charlie's word that it had life for every pound.

Ammon Resigns . . . .

lars less than when I began my pastorate here. With conditions as we have then, church debt, unfinished house, many members indifferent as to the ongoing of the work, it is mighty hard to get the Baptist living here but holding membership elsewhere, enlisted and also hard to win the non-christians to Christ and the Church. But we have had 105 persons to unite with our Church, many of these by baptism. The general work of the Church has improved. We now have a better organized Sunday School, for we are better equipped for the work; we have a good W.M.S.; Y.W.A.; G.A.; Sunbeam; B.T.U. All these organizations are doing splendid work for which we are glad.

With an unfinished church house, with a heavy church debt of long standing, with a small ACTIVE church membership, and other local elements, made the task here, according to Mr. M. A. Huggins, our General Secretary, one of the hardest in the state. But we are thankful for all the loyalty of those who have helped in this work, and we give praise to the Lord for the success of the work through these years. During these years I have tried to be a faithful minister of the Gospel and to be a pastor to the membership and congregation, making an average from 60 to 100 visits every month until last few months. I believe I can say with Paul, "Wherefore I testify unto you this day, that I am pure from the blood of all men. For I shrank from declaring unto you the whole counsel of God." (Acts 26:26)

For months, as some of you know, I have not been at all well. Upon the advice of the doctors, both here and elsewhere, because of ill health, I present my resignation as pastor of the First Baptist Church to become effective April 30, 1941. May the Lord graciously bless you and lead you and keep you in my prayer.

Cordially yours,
J. C. Ammons.

Jimmie McCombs . . . .

into pneumonia long before he even consented to see a doctor. Even then Jimmie kept going; refusing to admit he was ill; declaring his business and his obligations were such that he "just couldn't afford to be sick".

For more than a week he travelled on sheer nerve. But the flesh is weak, and finally even Jimmie's stalwart courage was forced to yield. And then it was too late. Not only had the flu developed into pneumonia, but pleurisy had attacked. The end came swiftly.

"Jimmie" McCombs was 27 years old, born in Murphy, the son of Dr. and Mrs. W. S. McCombs. His mother was the former Tallulah Elizabeth Butt, of Blairsville, Ga. Brilliant even as a child, the boy soon evidenced an unusual combination of business sense and artistic ability. He also had considerable mechanical skill, and he acquired a reputation for being "able to do, or fix most anything."

In his brief life Jimmie tried many fields of endeavor, but his restless spirit and his sense of the artistic made him forever seeking something better. Had he lived, he assuredly would have found his goal. As it is, he leaves a memory and a sorrow that will not soon, if ever, be surpassed.

Jimmie is survived by his widow, the former Dorothy Howard, and a three year old son, James Howard McCombs. He also leaves four sisters and a brother; Mrs. Edwin Winchester and the Misses Bettie Kate and Ella McCombs of Murphy, Mrs.

Ed Davidson, of Leansburg, Mo., and Robert McCombs of Murphy. The latter probably will take over the operation of Jimmie's business.

Active pallbearers were Messrs. Walter Mauney, Fred Moore, George Mauney, Grover Mauney, Morris Moore and Dillard McCombs.

Honorary pall bearers were: Victor Olmsted, P. J. Henn, Robert Akin, Harve Elkins, Tom Mauney, Homer Gladson, Don Gentry, Creed Bates, R. G. Alexander, Frank Hensley, Hugh Brittain, Frank Ellis, Frank Ferguson, Harry Sword, Leonard West, Robert Ledford, Howard Moody, T. P. Calhoun, Frank Crawford, Abe Zimmerman, and Paul McClure.

Attending the funeral from out of town were: Miss Ruby Owenby, Bill Owenby, of Marietta, Ga.; Lella Posey, Woodfin Posey, of Asheville, and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Lovingsood, of Hendersonville.
