WOLF CREEK NEWS

An item overlooked in last week's report was the burning down of Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Patterson's home with all its contents, some days ago. The fire occurred about 8:30 P. M. while Mr. Patterson was away at work. It resulted from an overheated stove pipe. This is the second home that has burned here in the last few weeks from a like cause.

The death of Adrian, the seven year and nine month old baby daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Simonds on Tuesday of last week, brought sorrow to the whole community, as was shown by the attendance at her funeral Wednesday afternoon, which was held in the Macedonia Baptist church, the Rev. Freed Townson conducting. She was laid to rest in the church cemetery, Quinn and Humphrey of Copperhill, being in charge.

Mr. Eldo Lewis Gilreath of McCaysville, Ga., was a pleasant visitor here Saturday.
