

Resort Visitors Are With Us Again

A typical summer week-end with temperatures in the lowlands soaring into the nineties indicated that nothing more of snakes Sunday would deter tourists from seeking relief in the mountains. Cars on the streets at Murphy last Saturday and Sunday were busy with visitors from Georgia, Alabama, Indiana, Michigan, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Virginia and West Carolina. While one of the main reasons for the popularity of the mountains is the cool climate, it is the scenic beauty and the recreation facilities that attract the most tourists. The mountains are a natural playground for the family and the individual alike. The mountains are a natural playground for the family and the individual alike.
