poetry and lyric anthologies. In the current publication, the following three of his poems are included: "Somewhere a Heart is Calling," "A Soldier's Dream," and "My Little Queen."

Mr. Moore is a native of Cherokee County and received his education in North Carolina schools. He has been writing music and poetry for several years. He is a jeweler by trade, being engaged in the business in Murphy.

In presenting "When It's Blossom Time in Old Carolina" on the Western Carolina Traveltalk, Jas. A. Fitzpatrick, manager, gave Mr. Moore screen credit, which has widely publicized the composer and his home town of Murphy.

"My Carolina Home," a poem published in the 1941 Book of Modern Poetry, has brought to Mr. Moore letters and comments from all parts of the nation. It is copied below.

Somewhere, far away over hills mountains,

There's a dear old valley of soft dreams and memories, And I know I'm welcome there by a dear daddy and mother with silvery hair.

To that dear old valley and home of my childhood days, I often dream of the moonlight in the old Tusquitee Valley

And long for my old Carolina home.

Dear old Carolina, dear old Carolina home.

Where nature puts on its coat of many beautiful colors in the springtime.

And where the crystal clear mountain streams flow;

Where the breeze, is always cool and refreshing, there I long to go.

My heart is ever yearning for those bygone days of my childhood.

The old Tusquitee Valley, my silvery haired daddy and mother, and my dear, old Carolina home.

Farm Families Increase Food Yields In 1942

Better equipment, better planning and better farming practices enabled small farmers in this section of the state to produce enough extra food in 1942 to feed thousands of fighting men and essential war workers, according to figures released here this week.

U. S. Department of Agriculture figures, which compare 1942 production of Farm Security Administration borrowers with their 1941 production, show that 3548 FSA borrower families in the counties of this Farm Security district including Cherokee County, increased their production of milk sufficient to feed 11048 soldiers for a full year.

The same families increased their beef production by 67 per cent, or a total increase of 120,000 pounds. The egg production went up 70 per cent, the increase totaling 17600 dozen eggs, or enough to provide 5866 soldiers, sailors, or marines with 30 dozen eggs each during the year.

The increase in hogs was enough to feed 385 soldiers bacon for a year, and 879 fighting men pork for a year. Similar favorable increases were noted in other food crops, such as chickens, potatoes, garden truck, cane, grain and dried beans and peas. The figures were released here by E. F. Arnold, FSA Supervisor for Cherokee County who pointed out the figures "refer to increases only" and not to the total production of these families.

These are families who have been seeking to do better farming, through the use of better farming practices and by acquiring better stock and equipment. Arnold said. Some got their first Farm Security loans last year under the Food for Freedom lending program, but a great many started the getting ready process four or five years ago. Practically all of them, with some new borrowers added, are "in there fighting" to meet even higher goals in 1943, the supervisor pointed out.

All-time High In Relief Set By Red Cross

WASHINGTON, D. C. - Never in its history has the American Red Cross been called upon to send relief to so many distant lands as in the past three years, according to Richard F. Allen, vice-chairman of Red Cross Foreign and Insular Operations.

Relief by and through the American Red Cross valued at more than $63,000,000 has been distributed to millions of men, women and children. Of this sum, supplies valued at more than $31,000,000 were from Government appropriations.

The bulk of these supplies have been sent to Great Britain, China and Russia. With the needs of these allies growing greater with each day of war, the extent to which relief supplies will continue going overseas will depend on the nation's response to the Red Cross War Fund appeal.

P. M. Miller of Wilson is having 3,000 pounds of Kobe lespedeza seed which he produced on his farm, cleaned and bagged for sale to local farmers, says Assistant Agent J. Clifton Tomlinson.

Programs For Home Clubs And Four-H Clubs Planned For The Entire Year . . .

Subject of Home Demonstration meetings and 4-H Club meetings for the year 1943 have been chosen by the specialists, district agents, and representative home agents, to better serve the rural women of each county in the State. All home demonstration club women of North Carolina are studying the same thing each month. Each subject was chosen with the War effort in mind. The theme for the year is: "The North Carolina Rural Home Front in Action." Following is the month-by-month program for both women and girls.

March: adult, quick and sure methods of making bread; 4-H, simplified methods of sewing; April, adult, clean to save; 4-H, freshen up for spring; May, adult milk for strong bodies; 4-H, home furnishing clinic; June: adult, food conservation; 4-H, food conservation, three products; July, adult and 4-H, busy day meals; August: adult and 4-H, where neighbors meet; September, adult, how safe is your home? 4-H, lunch away from home; October, adult, repair it and wear it; 4-H, care of clothes; November: adult and 4-H, ways to do more with less; and December: adult and 4-H, living with the family.

Special interest meetings will be arranged to meet needs for individual communities.

Home Demonstration women never before have had such a challenge and such a big job to do. We are to raise more food, conserve everything in the home, have time for meeting neighbors, and to do a good piece of war work.

Dress Making In War Times Is Subject Club Programs For March

The subject for Home Demonstration Club meetings during the month of March is "Quick and Sure Methods of Making a Dress." "The women serving on the Home Front, the matter of making and conserving clothing is becoming more and more vital," says Mrs. Alline R. King, home agent. "Today the women who sew are serving their country by releasing labor for farm work. The person who uses efficient and safe methods of construction is saving her own time which can be used for war effort, and money which may be loaned to the government through the purchase of Stamps and Bonds. A home maker has all the duties to do, even though she may not like some of her jobs. Dress-making may be one of them, but when done right, is a pleasure depending on how much skill and interest you put in your work. Every woman in the different communities where a Home Demonstration Club is organized is asked to attend not only this meeting but the others planned throughout the year."

The schedule for March is: 4th, Topton, Mrs. Mary Nelson, 2:00 o'clock; 5th, Culberson, Mrs. O. J. Anderson, 1:00 o'clock; 8th, Bellview, Mrs. C. C. Hall, 1:00 o'clock; 9th, Suit, Mrs. Jim Patterson, 1:00 o'clock; 10th, Liberty, Mrs. E. I. Carringer, 1:00 o'clock; 11th, Sta. Creek, Mrs. Callie Morrison, 10:00 o'clock all day meeting, ladies to bring lunch; 12th, Sunny Point, Mrs. Guy McNabb, 1:00 o'clock; 15th, the Agent goes to Franklin for day; 16th, Nutrition and Food Conservation School; 17th, Nutrition and Food Conservation School; 18th, Tomotia, Mrs. Gilbert Stiles, 2:00 o'clock; 19th, Martins Creek, Mrs. Glenn Chastain, 1:00 o'clock; 22nd, Marble, Mrs. Claude West, 1:30 o'clock; 23rd, Grandview, Mrs. J. M. Ramsey, 1:00 o'clock; 24th, Andrews, Mrs. Will Rodgers, 2:00 o'clock; 25th, Oregrea, Mrs. Oscar Johnson, 1:00 o'clock; 26th, Wolf Creek, Mrs. Robert Clure, 1:00 o'clock; 29th, Ranger, Mrs. Jess Wingett, 1:00 o'clock; 30th, Unaka, Mrs. R. A. Davis, 1:00 o'clock.

A change in schedules has been made this month in Grandview, Ranger, and Unaka, Agents requests all to note change carefully so there will be no mistake.

Rural Women Will Pledge More "Food For Freedom"

Mrs. Estelle T. Smith, assistant home demonstration agent at N. C. State College, has announced that all rural women in North Carolina will be given the opportunity of signing a pledge in the "Food For Freedom" campaign, which will be held during March.

Presidents of the home demonstration clubs, county federation presidents, district chairmen, members of the executive boards, and home demonstration agents are all taking a part in the drive. Home demonstration club women, with the assistance of neighborhood leaders, will visit every family in their districts and explain the food situation.

Mrs. Smith said that "Live-at-Home" is not just a popular slogan but is an idea which should receive the serious consideration of every farm family throughout the State. Plenty of fresh fruits and vegetables during season and enough home-canned products for the remainder of the year, will relieve the strain on rationed foods, and guarantee an adequate supply of commercially canned products for the armed forces and the Allies.

Rural women are asked to make plans for about one ton of food for each member of their families for the year. As a result, the Victory Garden will be a No. 1 project on every farm. Meetings for canning, brining and drying foods will be held. Thousands of home demonstration club women throughout North Carolina have produced and conserved enough food for the entire family in the past, and these leaders will attempt to make the "Live-at-Home" program a reality on every farm in 1943.

King Mill Is Headquarters For Sale Of Black Walnut

The Wood-Mosaic company of Louisville, Ky., announced today that it has completed arrangements for manufacturing black walnut gunstocks at the Ed King Mill company, Murphy.

Frank Rhymes, representative of the firm will begin purchasing walnut trees in this area this week.

The gunstocks will be only partially finished here and will be shipped to Louisville for kiln drying and finishing.

The company will purchase all available walnut logs, either on the stump or at the mill, and prices and other information will be furnished on request. Inquiries may be made by mail by addressing the Wood-Mosaic company, Box 1249, Asheville.

It was pointed out by representatives of the firm today that walnut has proven unsurpassed for making gunstocks for our fighting forces. Its strength is greater than that of any other wood for its weight, it takes a good finish and does not scar with rough handling. No walnut stumps will be purchased by the firm at this time.
