Final Exercises Andrews Schools Friday, April 23

ANDREWS — Commencement exercises of the Andrews City schools will get under way Sunday, April 18, at 11 o'clock with the preaching of the baccalaureate sermon by Prof. Phil L. Elliott of Western Carolina Teachers' college. The exercise will be held in the high school auditorium. Music will be under the direction of R. T. Houts, Jr., director of music in the high school.

The final graduating exercises will be held on Friday evening, April 23, at 8 o'clock, at which time the baccalaureate address will be made by Senator E. B. Whitaker of Blayson City. Mr. Whitaker is a former graduate of the Andrews high school.

Fifty-odd seniors will receive their diplomas at the graduating exercises. Also, prizes and awards will be announced and made at this time.

Speaking on the program with Senator Whitaker will be Irma Chambers, class salutatorian and Rachel George, valedictorian.

Senior class officers are: Ray Truett, president; Bill Hornsby, Vice President; Glen Matheson, Treasurer; Lucy Long, Secretary.

Senior Play Well Attended

ANDREWS — The recent senior play given by twelve members of the Andrews high school senior class on the evening of April 5, was well attended. Each member of the cast reflected credit upon the play directors, Mrs. Edna P. Bailey and I. B. Hudson. Prizes were offered to the boy and girl in the play who best portrayed the role assigned to him or her in the play. Winnie Rickett won the prize for the girls. Kent Calhoun was adjudged the best male actor. Prizes were donated by Nichols Department Store and Whitaker Bros. Store.

Judges were: William Walker, Mrs. I. B. Hudson and Mrs. Edwin Bristol. Voting was by secret ballot.

CARD OF THANKS

We want to take this opportunity to thank all our kind friends and neighbors for their many kindnesses, their sympathy and beautiful floral offerings during the sickness and death of our dear mother and grandmother.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Calhoun, Stillman and Kent.

Mrs. Addie Brown left Thursday for Columbia, S. C. to meet her husband, L. A. G. Brown.

Special Easter Services At Andrews

ANDREWS — A full and rich Easter program awaits the people of Andrews and vicinity.

The community chorus will render a program entitled "The Crucifixion" with Mr. Tom Houts as director. It will be Wednesday evening, April 21, in the Methodist church.

Friday at noon will be the two-hour, Good Friday service. This will be in the Lutheran church beginning at 12:00 o'clock and lasting until 2:00 p.m. Pastors of different denominations will take turns in discussing the Seven Words Jesus uttered while on the cross.

These words are as follows: "Father forgive them for they know not what they do," Luke 23:34; "Today shalt thou be with Me in Paradise," Luke 23:43; "Woman, behold thy son! Behold thy mother!", John 19:26,27; "My God, My God, why hast Thou forsaken Me?" Matt. 27:46; "I thirst," John 19:28; "It is finished," John 19:30; "Father into Thy hands I commend My spirit," Luke 23:46. These parts will be so arranged. It is hoped that as many as possible will take advantage of the entire program.

The climax of the community program will come Easter Sunday when the Sunrise service will be held at 6 o'clock on the Cemetery hill.

Andrews Church Extends Call To Rev. L. P. Smith

ANDREWS — Rev. L. P. Smith of Winston-Salem was extended a call to become pastor of the Andrews Baptist church at a conference held in the church on Sunday morning. The Rev. Mr. Smith is expected to accept the pastorate here.

Mr. Smith was pastor here for seven years, leaving here eighteen years ago to accept a pastorate in Winston-Salem where he had been pastor continuously since leaving until a year ago. The present Baptist church structure here was built during the first pastorate of Mr. Smith.

The local Baptist church has been pastorless since March 1, when its pastor, the Rev. E. F. Baker, became a chaplain in the United States army.

Bill Swan Is Eagle Scout

ANDREWS — Bill Swan of Andrews was made an eagle scout at exercises held in the Andrews Methodist church here Tuesday evening. Swan was the first scout in the Nantahala district to reach eagle rank. The presentation was made by I. B. Hudson, superintendent of the local schools. Swan is now enrolled in Brevard college.

The court of honor was held in the local Methodist church, and was attended by a number of scouts from Robbinsville, Murphy and Hayesville.

Following the court of honor the scouts remained for the revival services that were in progress at the Methodist church.

Lt. E. F. Baker was in Andrews with his family over the weekend. He left Tuesday for Palm Beach, Florida, where he is now stationed.

Seaman Edgar Whitaker, Williamsburg, Va., spent a few hours Tuesday with his mother, Mrs. Rhoda Whitaker. Mr. Whitaker's wife returned to Virginia with him and will remain in Portsmouth for a few weeks.

LEGAL NOTICE

THE 2nd WAR LOAN DRIVE IS ON!

How to invest in "fighting dollars!"

"Lend more money to help carry on the fight!" That's what our Government is asking you and all the rest of us . . . asking us to lend it 13 billion fighting dollars in the next few weeks! 13 billion extra dollars—over and above all regular War Bond buying!

We can do it . . . we must do it . . . we owe it to our boys who are fighting overseas. For their sake . . .

We've got to build more ships! We broke all records last year when we built 8 million tons of shipping. This year, we're building 18 million tons . . . but still it is not enough!

We've got to do more fighting! More and more of our soldiers and sailors are going into actual combat . . . requiring more equipment, and more supplies. We cannot let them down!

We've got to buy more War Bonds! To help pay for the things our fighting men need . . . we've got to buy War Bonds as we never bought them before!

In the next few weeks you may be visited by one of the thousands of men and women who are giving their time and effort to the 2nd War Loan Drive. Welcome these patriotic workers if they call . . . buy from them all the War Bonds you can!

Better still, don't wait for them. Go to your nearest bank, post office, or War Bond booth, and invest more fighting dollars now! It's the least you can do to help those who are fighting and dying overseas!

Among the 7 different kinds of U. S. Government securities is one that exactly fits your own particular purse and requirements. These securities are the finest investment in the world . . . bar none! For your Country's sake . . . for your own sake . . . invest all you can!

THEY GIVE THEIR LIVES... YOU LEND YOUR MONEY!
