Rev. L. L. Smith Assumes Duties As Pastor Of Andrews Baptist Church

The Rev. L. P. Smith has accepted a call to become pastor of Andrews Baptist church. He arrived there last week to begin his work. Mrs. Smith will join him in a few weeks.

Mr. Smith was a former pastor of the Andrews church, having served there when the present church was built. He left 18 years ago to become pastor of East Fourth Street Baptist church in Winston-Salem where he served for 16 years.

Following his graduation at Duke University, Mr. Smith started his ministry at Hickory, where he preached four years. He came to Andrews from Hickory for his first pastorate at that church.

When Mr. Smith went to Winston-Salem in 1926 his church was practically a new structure and was indebted to the extent of $70,000. Under his leadership the indebtedness was paid off. Meanwhile, the Negro population in that section of the city increased to such an extent that all white churches in the area were forced to suspend activities. On Feb. 23, the East Fourth Street church issued letters to all its members in good standing and closed out its organization in the convention.

During 16 years of his active pastoral work in Winston-Salem, Mr. Smith was secretary of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association for 14 years. On two occasions he won prizes for the excellence of his church records in competition with other association secretaries throughout the Southern Baptist Convention.

The Smiths have two daughters and a son. Miss Virginia Smith and Miss Sue Smith are on the staff of the North Carolina Baptist Hospital in Winston-Salem, and Ned Smith is principal of Central School in Winston-Salem. All will continue their work there.

New Selective Service Rules Are Announced

Chief effect of the recent changes in selective service classifications is the elimination of dependency deferment except for: (1) Those who maintain bona fide homes with children, (2) Those whose induction would cause extreme hardship to a wife, child or parent and, (3) Those with dependents who are necessary to and regularly engaged in agriculture.

Men formerly classified in III-A and III-B who had been deferred because of dependents will be reconsidered. Class III-B is eliminated entirely. A child born after September 4, 1942 is not recognized as a "dependent" in classifying a registrant in Class III-A. The new classification, III-D, will contain all men whose induction, in the opinion of their local boards, would create extreme hardship or privation for a dependent wife, child, or parent.

Six Persons Are Bitten By Mad Dog

Six persons in the county were bitten recently by a mad dog, according to T. G. Ellis, sanitarian of the Health department, who stated that all of the victims have begun Anti-rabies treatment.

The mad dog was a collie puppy owned by Paul Simms, who lives about two miles from Murphy on the Culberson road. The puppy was bitten by a stray dog about the middle of March. No trace of the stray dog has been established.

On March 11 Edna Simms, was bitten on the leg by the collie; on the same day, Claude Simms was bitten on the hand. The following day the following were bitten on their hands: Phyllis Hall Palmer, Ray Simms, Cline Simms, and Mrs. Paul Simms.

Mr. Ellis stated that as soon as the case was reported to the health department on April 14, he investigated and found the puppy to be slobbering and to have the initial stages of paralysis of the rear legs. He killed the puppy and shipped the head to the state laboratory of hygiene. The report was returned on April 16, stating that the dog was mad.

The following who had dogs to be bitten by the collie have had their two dogs each killed: Paul Simms, Charles Hedden, and J. L. Hall. Some whose dogs could have been exposed have either had their dogs killed or have them in confinement for a same period of time.

R. A. Brodesser, of Washington, D. C., president of Southern Dairies, has announced that the demand on milk from the armed forces throughout the South his company has decided to locate in Murphy a receiving station for Class C and Class A milk.

Due to the location of a receiving station here, the company will be able to deliver this milk to any of the Southern Dairies Southern plants, preferably in Florida, Georgia, Alabama, Tennessee and South Carolina.

Mr. Brodesser states that he believes there are in the Murphy area enough farmers who have not had a sufficient market previously, to develop the dairy industry in this section. He said that the possibilities, due to Murphy's strategic location, will be very favorable.

For some time Cherokee county has wanted a milk market to help develop the dairy industry of the area.

Milk will be drawn from three counties in Georgia, two in Tennessee, and from Cherokee and several others in North Carolina.

The company has leased a building for receiving milk until conditions permit the building of a milk manufacturing unit, which will consist of milk for cheese, ice cream, a condensery, and Grade A milk.

As soon as possible modern equipment will be installed in the rented building. The company will have available for sale to farmers equipment they will need to become milk producers. New power dams in Western North Carolina make available sufficient electricity to meet needs of dairy farmers.
