W A A C S

On May 14, 1942, the Congress of the United States, passed the bill authorizing the formation of the Women's Army Auxiliary Corps. Today, through Executive Order a quota of 150,000 has been established. WAACS are replacing men in non-combatant jobs of practically all branches of the Army at home and abroad. In order that other men may be released to aid your husband, son, brother, or sweetheart your duty as an American and to them may be fulfilled by enrolling now in the WACCS. Help meet the quota now by enrolling in the WAACS today.

Contact Lt. Merrylees on April 28, 1943
