Genell Caldwell And Frank Casey United In Marriage At Blue Ridge

Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Caldwell of Murphy have announced the marriage of their daughter, Miss Genell Caldwell, to Frank Casey, pharmacist's mate, first class, son of Mrs. W. W. Abernethy of Mayodan.

The ceremony was performed on August 27 at the Methodist parsonage at Blue Ridge, Ga., with the Rev. Mr. Chidsey, officiating.

A program of wedding music was presented by Miss Hensley, violinist of Blue Ridge, and Mrs. Fred Johnson, Jr., vocalist, of Murphy, who sang "I Love You Truly" by Carrie Jacobs Bond. Miss Hensley played "Liebest-raum" by Liszt during the ceremony. The traditional wedding marches were used for the processional and recessional.

Miss Louise Mauney of Murphy, was maid of honor, and Mrs. Earl Brown of Asheville and Miss Phoebe Caldwell of Murphy, sisters of the bride, served as bridesmaids.

The bride wore a costume of black, with matching accessories, and a corsage of sweetheart roses. The maid of honor and the bridesmaids were also dressed in black, with black accessories. Miss Mauney wore a corsage of sweetheart roses, and the bridesmaids wore white roses.

Mrs. Johnson wore violet, with brown accessories, and a corsage of red roses.

The bridegroom had as best man, D. J. R. Bell of Murphy. After a short wedding trip he will return to Norfolk, and Mrs. Casey will return to Murphy, where she will make her home.
