

Five Boys From Cherokee And Graham Counties Fight With Kraut Killer Regiment In Mountainous Area, Italy

WITH THE FIFTH ARMY, Italy — Pfc. Harold H. Adams, rifleman of Andrews; Pvt. Vernon R. Martin, ammunition handler, Route 3, Murphy; Sgt. Herman H. Jones, squad leader, Unaka; Pfc. Eugene W. Crisp, messenger, Stecoah; and Pfc. Creed A. Jones, messenger, Cheoah, are serving with the 349th Infantry Regiment one of Lt. General Mark W. Clark's Fifth Army units which smashed the Gustav and Hitler Lines and chased the Germans from the Garigliano to the Arno River in Italy.

Part of the 88th Infantry Division, first Selective Service infantry division to enter combat on any front, the 349th piled up a total of 95 miles gained in 46 days of actual combat during the Fifth Army sweep up the Italian Peninsula.

Known as the "Kraut-Killers", doughboys of the 349th fought across some of the worst mountainous terrain to capture Fondi, key point in the vaunted Adolf Hitler Line, and protected the flank of the French Corps in its push across Mts. Ausoni and Lepini. Highlights of the regiment's action below Rome came at Maenza when one platoon ambushed an entire German armored company attempting to flee the town.

After driving through Rome, the 349th was pulled back for rest about mid-June. It returned to combat early in July, and after its toughest battles occurred after capture of Palaia and San Miniato, when a platoon of the 349th beat off eight German counterattacks of near battalion strength while holed up in a house at Calenzano.

Colonel Joseph B. Crawford of Humboldt, Kansas, veteran of North Africa, Sicily, Salerno and Anzio, and holder of six decorations for bravery commands the 349th Infantry Regiment.

Have a Coca-Cola = Welcome home

... a way to revive old times

Among the things the returning soldier finds unchanged is the pause that refreshes with ice-cold Coca-Cola. Have a "Coke" says relax and be yourself. Around the world Coca-Cola stands for the pause that refreshes,—has become the familiar greeting of friendly folks.

HELP YOUR NEIGHBOR... AND YOU HELP YOUR COUNTRY

They Builded Better Than They Knew

With the help of the neighbors, many a little red schoolhouse was built. That readiness to help the folks down the road and the family across the square was the strength of our early America, the foundation for our democracy. Because of it, we have a greater heritage to defend than any other people on Earth.

In these wartime days, the spirit of neighborliness so characteristic of our people is again paying dividends. Did you ever dream ten years ago that today you would pull up to the curb and offer a ride to a stranger? That you would have a bundle of salvaged paper ready when the Boy Scouts called? That you would walk home with awkward packages because your dealers have difficulty making deliveries? When you aid your neighbor, you aid your country. Isn't it surprising how many things one person can do to help win the war?
