Lt. Almond Speaks To Rotary Club

ANDREWS — Lt. Gerald Almond was the third Andrews Rotarian to return from overseas and talk to the club, his talk being heard at the club meeting here Thursday. The other overseas Rotarians are Jack Herbert and A. B. Chandler, Jr. Herbert has a medical discharge, while Chandler is still in the service.

Lt. Almond has spent fifteen months in the Pacific. During this time he said that he had crossed the equator eleven times. His duties as a medical officer have taken him to practically all of the islands of the Pacific that have been strategic, or have been militarily important. Dr. Almond has rendered first aid and medical assistance to great numbers of our soldiers, sailors, and marines. He had the highest praise for the courage of the fighting men. He stated emphatically, "We've got a bunch that can't be beat".

Of special interest in Dr. Almond's talk was a description of the reorganization of the Guam Rotary club, and of this club's activities on a scene where there was so much need. It may be truthfully said that no Andrews Rotarian ever "made up his attendance" so far away from home as did Dr. Almond when he ate with the Rotarians of Guam. Two new members were welcomed to the club, Rev. Leo M. Smith, Lutheran minister here, and Tom Hay, machine shop operator. The new members were inducted by Bill Whitaker and I. B. Hudson.

THE ARMY KNOWS where a big share of Hanes production is going

As you'd expect, the makers of Hanes Underwear are taking care of war needs first . . . helping to clothe your relatives and friends in the Armed Services. Sometimes your dealer's stock of Hanes Underwear will be low — though we are making all we can for your needs, too.

HANES VALUE begins with the cotton. For 44 years, Hanes has put the best values possible into knitted underwear at prices most men can afford. That's why we spin our own yarns, knit these into true-size garments that are styled for a man's comfort — and for long wear. P. H. Hanes Knitting Company, Winston-Salem, North Carolina.

* Comfort features of HANES WOVEN SHORTS
These smartly tailored garments are cut to full size — no skimping. The seat is roomy, the legs the right length. Wear them with a Hanes Undershirt for extra comfort.
