Tourist Travel Is Discussed

Dr. W. A. Hoover, president of Murphy Business Men's club pre sided at the regular meeting held in the basement of the Methodist church Tuesday evening, and reported on the meeting which he attended recently in Asheville a which from 20 to 25 presidents and are: Horses, $2.50 per head if secretaries of chambers of comsold, $1 if not; cows, under $20, merce and other business men were present.

> The gist of the meeting, Dr. Hoover said, was to form an organization whereby there would be a committee for Western North To Be Offered Carolina and one for Eastern North Carolina, which would in Farmers In Area turn form a travel and tourist organization to make better use of existing facilities, improve existing facilities, and develop new facilities for taking care of tourists. It was pointed out that Murphy would not be able to take care of tourists after the war with the existing housing shortage.

State Highway Commissioner Goode, and J. C. Walker, highway meeting in Asheville. They stated Smoky Mountain Park from North Carolina and received $6 to North Carolina's $1, because North Carolina had not gone after the business with good roads and other facilities. Mr. Walker stated that he thought bus companies and railroads would finance these improvements and not call upon business men's clubs and chambers of commerce to finance it. Mr. Walker stated that the highway from Asheville through Murphy to Copperhill would be improved, and T. A. Case announced that the state line three miles toward Mineral Bluff. Work on the road from Mineral Bluff to the Blue Ridge-Blairsville road is already under construction. This leaves only about five miles between the two links to be surfaced.

Dr. B. W. Whitfield, chairman of the airport committee, and C. L. Alverson reported on plans sug gested by George McMurray and Joe Norwood of the Civil Aeronautics commission who were here recenly to make a survey of the airport which is proposed to be half on J. C. Townson's land and half on E. A. Wood's. J. B. Gray suggested that the owners of the property come to his office and he would prepare a contract according to the agreement between all parties, for them to sign

K. C. Wright of Morganton recommended that Murphy build a golf course for use by visitors. He said he often sent people to Murphy, recommending the fishing, and they would invariably ask what kind of golf course Murphy has Dr. Hoover introduced Frank Mauney and Mr. Wright as his guests. He stated that Mr. Mauney has given the club the use of an office in his building.

Dr. Whitfield introduced George Stauning as his guest, and Dr. Bell introduced Paul Owenby.

A directors' meeting was held at the close of the meeting for the purpose of electing a secretary to take the place of R. W. Easley who has asked to be relieved of that office. W. D. King was elected and has accepted.

Mr. Easley announced that meetings will be held regularly in the basement of the Methodist church.
