A Double Responsibility-

Mr. Jones—Mr. Edwin L. Jones—is receiving congratulations on the birth of twins. Mrs. Jones, it might be added, is also deserving of congratulations.

Jones has recovered from the initial shock of his experience. He now appears to be master of the situation, but is not yet fully aware of its implications.

He has not revised his budget. Nor has he guessed the part safety-pins are going to play in his life. And, at the moment, he cannot realize how many months will pass before he again gets a good night's sleep.

Mr. Jones is at the threshold of responsibility... in his case, a double responsibility.

When, at length, safety-pins and sleepless nights become cherished memories, Mr. and Mrs. Jones will face a new kind of double responsibility. They will want to provide their children with the moral and spiritual training that builds Christian character. And they will want their own lives to show their children the meaning of Christian character.

The church offers religious training to all children. Regular worship in the church will strengthen the character of their parents. Fathers and mothers, through the church of your own choice, you will receive wisdom and guidance for your double responsibility.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend and support the Church of his choice. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to Church on Sunday.
