VOLUME 57 - NUMBER 48.

MURPHY, NORTH CAROLINA THURSDAY, JUNE 20, 1946.

EIGHT PAGES THIS WEEK

PRESS TO MEET IN MURPHY ON JUNE 28-29TH

Lions Win Trophy For Work With Blind

ner of the Blind Trophy at the annual State Lions convention held in Raleigh last Friday and Saturday. This club was competing with 41 Picture And other clubs of like size of from 36 to 66 members, with a total membership of 2,401, for this award.

The local club was represented at the convention by the following: W. A. Sherrill, Dr. W. A. Hoover, R. W. Easley, Jr., H. G. Elkins and

Dedication To Be Held 30th

Dedication service will be held at Vengeance Creek Baptist Church Sunday, June 30. Sunday School will be at 9:00 followed by singing, a talk by Rev. Jas. L. Truett and preaching by Rev. Algia West. The dedication sermon will be given by Rev. Thomas Truett. Refreshments will be served at noon

In the afternoon singing will be presented by the Upper Peachtree Choir, by the Cherokee Indian Class, Valleytown Class and Marble class. Sermons will be preached by Rev. Robert Barker and Rev Jas. L. Truett

Revival Going

Daily Vacation Bible school is in progress at Free Methodist church Methodist church, with the Rev. K W. Johnston of Spartanburg, S. C., doing the preaching and the Rev. Earl Alexander of South Carolina leading the singing.

The Rev. L. E. Latham, pastor, Innounces that color slides of South American will be shown in the Sunday evening young people's

Swaim Family Reunion Held

The Swaim family reunion was ing. held recently, with the following Barton and family, Mr. and Mrs Tom Watson, all of Maryville, Tenn., Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Swaim, of Miami, Fla., Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Barnett of Peachtree, Mr. and Mrs Jewel Spivey, Mr. and Mrs. Pearl Swaim, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Sneed, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Sneed and son. and Mrs. Fred Swaim and family. Rogers, all of Murphy.

Roosevelt's Bible Protected

Lightning struck the home of Mr. and Mrs. Neil Millsaps in North Murphy Friday morning about 9 o'clock and played a freak trick or two. It tore a fourfoot hole in the house, destroying everything it hit except a large Bible and a picture of Franklin D. Roosevelt.

The table on which the Bible was resting was destroyed, and a hole was torn through the wall back of where the Roosevelt picture was hanging; but neither the Bible nor the picture was scarred or soiled, states Mr. Millsaps who also says that he is thankful these two items were

90-Year-Old Lady Dies 15th

Funeral services for Mrs. Matilda Cearley, 90, who died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Martha Voyles, Blairsville, Saturday were held Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock at Mt. Zion Baptist church with the On At Local Church at Mt. Zion Baptist church with the Rev. Colvin Thompson and the Rev. Thomas Truett officiating. Burial was in the church cemetery.

Surviving are five sons. Jim of Blairsville, Lowrey of Culberson. Pat of Atlanta, Lon of Morganton, Ga., and Burrell of Gastonia; one daughter Mrs. Martha Voyles of Blairsville.

Townson funeral home was in charge of arrangements.

Florist Shop To Open Here

A new florist shop with Miss Betty Lou Burch in charge, will open soon in the Regal hotel build-

Miss Burch is now in Atlanta, people present: Mr. and Mrs. Guy Ga., completing a course in floral designing at Mrs. John L. Harper's school. She was accompanied to Atlanta by her mother, Mrs. Doyle

FORMER SCOUT EDITOR HERE Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Bailey and children, Carolyn, Brewster and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sneed, Mr. Loretta of Atlanta are spending the Swaim and family. week here as guests of E. C. Moore. aim. Mr. and Mrs. Mr. Bailey will be remembered as Have Bible School Ray McDonald, and Mrs. Sarah the former owner and publisher of

MISERY LOVES—AND HAS—COMPANY

WHEN dittle Maureen Griggs, of London, contracted the mumps, her edger aster brought home a baby sparrow she had found, helpless, hungry and featherless. During their double convalescence Maureen fed the bird milk from a fountain pen filler and now she is feeding her feathered thend a lavish dinner of soaked bread crumbs. (International)

ON METHODIST HOUR - Bis hop Charles C. Selecman, former president of Southern Methodist University and resident bishop of the Dallas Area of The Methodist Church, who will be heard on The Methodist Hour on Sunday June 23rd. He will speak on "The Supremacy of Personality", and the program will originate from WSB in Atlanta at 8:30 A. M. EST.

Bishop Selecman is a former president of The Council of Bishops and is the founder of the Golden Cross Society. As president of the General Board of Evangelism he is the leader in the "Year of Evangelism", which is the current emphasis in the Crusade for Christthe present four year program of The Methodist Church. His two most recent books are "The Methodist Primer' 'and "The Primer of Evangelism"

The radio speaker served as pas tor of Trinity in Los Angeles and First Methodist Church in Dallas prior to his election as president of S. M. U. He was elevated to the episcopacy in 1938 at the General Conference of the former M. E. Church, South and since 1944 has been serving as resident bishop of the Methodist Church in the two Texas Conferences.

Dr. Wm. F. Quillian, executive secretary of the Southeastern Jurisdictional Council, Atlanta, Ga., will introduce Bishop Selecman.

The Methodist Hour is broadcast over an independent network of 38 stations which covers all the states in the South and Southwest and is presented in cooperation with the Southern Religious Radio Conference.

The program, which is on the air every week in June, is heard in this section over: WWNC Asheville WPTF, Raleigh; WSJS, Winston-Salem. WSB, Atlanta; WNOX, Knoxville; and WRVA, Richmond, at 8:30 a. m

Free Methodists

Dlia Vacation Bible school is in progres sat Free Methodist church here this week. The school is using materials from Scripture Press It is being well attended, but oththrough next week.

reservation in advance.

Foremost in the mountain area,

Eight Divorces Granted At Civil Court This Week

Judge Wilson Warlick presided over a civil term of court which convened here Monday morning and was adjourned that afternoon The cases tried were mostly divorces, eight being granted and one non suited. Divorces granted

Mary Clyde Beck vs. Samuel J. Beck; Reba Smith Moore vs. Richard M. Moore; Stoy Allison vs. Ruth Walsh Allison; Hazel Daniel Loftis vs. Frank Loftis; Earl Max Tatham vs. Vivian Tatham; Marguerite Green vs. Grady Lee Greene, nonsuited; Lemuel Rogers vs. Eva Rogers; A. W. Reid vs. Cora Reid J. B. Rogers vs. Earline W. Rogers.

In the case of Minerals and Metals corporation vs. H. S. Predmore the court ordered defendant to surrender 125 shares of stock to the secretary of the Corporation for cancellation and on failure to do so, judgment shall have force and effect of cancelling shares and recover the sum of $1400 for monies advanced to defendant for use of plaintiff for which defendant has not accounted, and plaintiff have and recover of defendant costs of

The case of Laney vs. Laney concerning real estate was con-

S. A. Voyles vs. Noah Mintz, agreed to a settlement of all matters in dispute whereby the defendant is to pay the plaintiff the sum of $225 in full of plaintiff's claim against defendant and wherein defendant is to recover nothing of plaintiff by way of his Joss action, it being further understood that plaintiff is not to issue execution for a period of 60 days and only then in event the $225 is not paid and that the bond heretofore given the defendant under which he retained possession of the truck to remain in full force and effect and be amendable in full payment in favor of plaintiff for the $225 with interest at 6 per cent; defendant to pay costs.

Hugh E. Hood citizenship restored as if he had never been convicted of crime set out in petition One case was entitled:

Mrs. Mary Mosteller, widow, and Nellie Mosteller, Laura Belle Mosteller, Mayreen Mosteller, Evic Mosteler, Monroe Mosteller, Martha Mosteller, children of Frank Mosteller, Jr., plaintiff, vs. Herman West, defendant. In 1942 Mosteller working for Herman West as bushman clearing right of way for transmission line in burning brush became overheated and died of heat stroke two days later. In action before Industrial commission recoverjudgment against West to pay si2 per week for 350 weeks. Case was compromised.

ur, Jr., and Audria, of Glendale. Calif.; and three grandchildren.

LEGION TO MEET

The Joe Miller Elkins Post of the ers who have not enrolled are urg- American Legion will meet at the ed to do so. School begins at 9 Cherokee county courthouse on ferred from Pine Camp. New York a. m. daily and will continue Tuesday evening, June 25, at 7:30 to Honor Company, Fort Knox

Fishing Big Attraction

In This Lake Territory

didn't see any camping out or re- some of the best fishing in several welcomes fishermen whether they along with Ashevile, Henderson This is a good time to go.

coastal and inland waters with war years, it still lacks a bit being modations, ing locality.

summer cottages, hotels, and homes full, but the bass haven't let that opening as havens to the weary make any difference. They've mov-sportsmen. Fishermen can journey | cd right in to provide some of the

to their favorite angling grounds better fishing of the entire area, not to stay — that is if they have a lah, and Hiwassee in the neighbor-

Three New Agents To Serve In County

offices have been filled and one new assistant farm agent added to the Cherokee county staff, all three of them assuming their duties here this week.

Miss Lena Brown of Sandy Ridge is filling the vacancy created by the resignation of Miss Sadie Hendley in September, 1945, as assistant home agent. She is a 1946 gradu ate of Appalachian State Teacher college, Boone, where she received her B. S. degree in Home Econom ics in May. Miss Brown's duties will be chiefly with the farm families participating in the TVA test demonstration farm and home program and with 4-H club girls work, as assistant to Miss Mary Cornwell, home agent. She arrived Thursday and is living in the home of Miss Josephine Heighway.

Mack Patton of Franklin has re placed D. G. Allison who was transferred to Macon county June 1, as assistant farm agent. He is graduate of N. C. State College and served three years in the army, re ceiving his discharge recently. He will be in charge of the TVA test demonstration farm program in this county, working as an assistant to County Agent A. Q. Ketner.

Lemuel Goode of Mullens, W Va., has been added to the extens ion staff as assistant farm agent and will be in charge of 4-H club work and a livestock program in the county. He received his M. S. degree from the University of West Virginia at Morgantown and served three and a half years in the army

Mr. Patton and Mr. Goode, both of whom are single, are living in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Buel

Mrs. Hill Dies In Detroit, Mich.

Mrs. Oden Colvard Hill, 62, wife of Arthur Hill of Detroit, Mich. died suddenly from a heart attack at her home on June 9. Funerai services were held on June 12 at 2 p. m. in Detroit. Interment was in Glenwood cemetery in Wayne, Mrs. Hill's father was Andrew J. Colvard of Graham County. Her mother, Eliza Jane Whitaker Colvard, was a daughter of Capt. Stephen Whitaker of Andrews Her parents moved from North Carolina to the Indian Territory in the 70's Mrs. Hill was born near Tahlequah.

She is survived by her husband Arthur Hill, who was born and reared in Cherokee county, being agent for Southern Railway at An- school which began Monday morn drews many years ago; three chil- | ing. The school will continue dren, Mrs. Thelma Simmons, Arth-Bob, Millie and Mary Jane Sim-

TRANSFERRED

Quentin Hyde has been trans

Broke' Jewel Case

FAMED CRIMINOLOGIST and inventor of the lie detector, Leonarde Keeler is shown looking over pictures of the stolen Hesse-Darmstadt crown jewels which he helped re-cover in Chicago, Ill. Keller helped break the case of the spectacular theft of the hoard from Kronberg Castle in German, after being called in by the U. S. Government. The gems and other valuables, of which Keeler is holding pictures—amounting to about help of the amounting to about half of the stolen loot—were recovered in the Windy City. (International)

35 Enrolled In Bible School

"The Worthy Walk" is the sermon topic announced by the Rev. T. G. Tate for the Sunday morning service at the Presbyterian church Sunday school will convene at 10 o'clock, and Young Peoples' and

There will be no evening service as Mr. Tate will preach at the Hayesville Presbyterian church at a

Thirty-five members were enrolled in the Daily Vacation Bible through next week

Miss Ann Tate was added this week to the faculty. Other teach ers are: Miss Mildred Gilreath. Mrs. R. H. Foard, Miss Mary Lou Gordon, Mrs. Robert H. Cox, Miss Jane Hill, Miss Billie Ruth Ricks, Mrs. Harry Miller, Tommy Alexander and Mr. Tate.

MAKES RECORD - Miss Ruby from there to Dunmore. resort, and it opens June 15. Jefferson, or Little Switzerland, binsville accommodates fishermen Radford, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. That's the date set; but as early as you'll find the summer accommo- from Lake Santeetlah, while Mur-Garland Radford, Grandview, has June 10, tourists were finding their dations open and doing a rushing phy caters to patrons of Lake Hiturning for want of a place to seasons is operating full blast travel for stream or lake fishing. term of school.

Banquet And Tours Feature Two-Day Visit

Weekly Press Association will meet in Murphy on June 28-29, and have nvited members of the North Carolina Press Association, composed of most daily and weekly publishers of the state, to be in attendance.

Albert S. Hardy, publisher and editor of the Gainesville (Ga.) News, will be the guest speaker at the banquet to be held on Friday evening. The program will include greetings and remarks from several special guests, special music, and stunts. Murphy Lions club and Murphy Business Men's Club will be hosts at the banquet.

Visits to local industries and the John C. Campbell Folk School will be made on Friday morning beginning at 9:30 o'clock. At noon Friday the Town of Murphy will entertain the visitors at luncheon. In the afternoon, a tour will be made to Hiwassee Dam and the Copper Basin at Ducktown and Copperhill.

On Saturday morning the party will leave for a trip through the Nantahala National Forest, Joyce Kilmer National Forest, and will spend a few hours at Fontana Dam. Government Services, Inc., will be host to the visitors at a luncheon at Fontana Village at one o'clock. Fishing on Hiwassee Lake will be provided for any of the visitors who desire to go fishing.

Among those for whom reservations have been made here are: Harvey F. Laffoon, publisher of the Elkin Tribune and President of the North Carolina Press association, and Mrs. Laffoon: Miss Beatrice Cobb, publisher of Morganton News-Herald and secretarytreasurer of N. C. P. A.; Mr. and Mrs. Albert S. Hardy and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hardy of Gainesville, Ga.; Mr. and Mrs. B. Arp Lowrance and Mrs. Brooks of the Mecklenburg Times, Charlotte; Bill Barrett. Mt. Holly News, Mount Holly; R. E. Price, Rutherford News, Rutherfordton; Noah Hollowell, Western North Carolina Tribune. Hendersonville; Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Rawlins and child of Mooresville; Ed M. Anderson of the Transylvania Times, Brevard; Mr. and Mrs. Walter A .Ward and two sons of the West Asheville News, Asheville; Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Horner of the Sanford Herald, Sanford; Weimar Jones of the Franklin Pioneer societies will meet at 7:15 Press, Franklin; Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Gray and son of Sylva, and several others are expected within the next few days.

Registration wil be at Regal Hotel on Thursday evening and Friday morning, with Mrs. C. W. Savage in charge.

Dotson Assigned To USS Hobson

Dewey William Dotson, 17, seaman, second class, son of Mr and Mrs. Edd. Dotson, Culberson, was assigned to the USS Hobson, a mine sweeper, on May 11.

Dotson, who reported to the vesel from the Naval Training Center, Norfolk, Va., entered the Naval Service on Feb. 23, and received his recruit training at the Naval Training Center, Norfolk

Miss Youorski's Brother Dies

Monday night from Dunmore, Pa.. where she was called last week by the illness of her 14-year-old brother. John Youorski, who died there last Tuesday. The youth was bitten by a mad dog and failing to respond to treatment, died of rabies. Miss Youorski was accompanied by her brother of Lenoir, who met her in Asheville, the two driving

Mrs. W. A. Hoover, her two chila perfect attendance record at the dren, and Miss Corena Murphy are way in to Fontana Lake, and I business. Lake Lure, supporting wassee. The Sylva-Dillsboro area Upper Beaverdam School since she visiting Mrs. Hoover's mother, Mrs. entered the first grade. She com- E. C. Sullivan, and her mother-inpleted the seventh grade the past law, Mrs. John Hoover, of Cherry-