Miss Edna Ramsey Weds H. J. Hall Of Detroit

Miss Edna Ramsey of Murphy and Harold J. Hall of Detroit, Mich., were married Saturday evening, October 12, at 8 o'clock in a candle light service at the Baptist pastorial, with the Rev. J. Alton Morris, pastor of the First Baptist church, officiating. The double ring ceremony was used. The vows were spoken before the fireplace which was banked with mountain laurel, with tall seven-branched candelabra holding white cathedral candles on each side, and a basket of white chrysanthemums in the center. Plumose fern and crystal candelabra holding white tapers decorated the mantel. The dining table, covered with a lace cloth, was centered with a crystal bowl of small white flowers flanked by white candles in crystal holders.

A program of wedding music was presented by Mrs. J. Alton Morris. As the candles were lighted by Miss Mary Jo Lloyd and Miss Frances Jo Martin, Mrs. Morris played "The Sweetest Story Ever Told", by Stults, and during the ceremony, "Always" was played softly.

The bride and groom entered together, unattended, to the strains of the Bridal chorus from "Lohengrin". She wore a light blue suit with black accessories and a corsage of white orchids.

Miss Willie McKinney, maid of honor, wore a pink wool dress with black accessories and a corsage of white carnations.

The bridegroom had as best man his brother, Rex Hall of Detroit. Immediately after the ceremony, the young couple left by motor for a wedding trip. They will make their home in Detroit.

Mrs. Hall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Ramey of Otto, is a graduate of Franklin high school. She attended Asheville Beauty academy, and has been employed at Candler's Beauty Shoppe here for five years.

Mr. Hall, son of Mrs. Nettie Showers and the late Mr. Hall of Detroit, received his B. A. degree in Music at the University of Miami, Miami, Fla. He played First Oboe with the Michigan Symphony. After three years in service with the 103rd infantry, he is now a member of the Detroit Symphony Orchestra. He played with the Detroit Civic Light Opera company during the season of 1946, and now appears on the Ford Sunday evening hour.

Guests attending the wedding were: Mr. and Mrs. Ramey, parents of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. Russell Ramey and Mr. and Mrs. Neville Ramey of Franklin, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Walker of Andrews, Mr. and Mrs. Dale Lee, Mrs. G. W. Candler, Mrs. John Donley, Walker Martin and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hyatt.

Mrs. J. N. Hill left Wednesday to spend a few days in Atlanta.

Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Anderson spent the week-end with friends in Hayesville.

Miss Gladys McCleskey went to her home in Marietta, Ga., for the week-end.
