

A Glad Christmas To Everyone!

The Cherokee Scout

Christmas Seals
YOUR PROTECTION AGAINST TUBERCULOSIS

VOLUME 57 — NUMBER 23.

MURPHY, NORTH CAROLINA, THURSDAY, DECEMBER 26, 1946

SIXTEEN PAGES TODAY

Helen Wells Gets Doctor's Degree

Miss Helen Wells, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. N. Wells, received her degree of Doctor of Medicine, December 15, at the Bowman Gray School of Medicine of Wake Forest college. Dr. Wells received her pre-medical education at W. C. U. N. C., following which she served as laboratory instructor. Dr. Wells has accepted a position at Rex Hospital in Raleigh. She is a graduate of Murphy high school in the class of 1940 and was valedictorian of the class.

Murphy Cafe Now Has New Owners

Murphy Cafe was purchased on Dec. 4, from C. L. Alverson, by Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Lewis of Asheville. Mr. Lewis announces that he will keep a nice place and serve good food. No beer nor wine will be sold. He will manage the place.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis have two children and are anxious to find a place to live in Murphy, so the family can be together.

FIRST METHODIST SERVICES

At the First Methodist church the Rev. R. L. Young will speak on the theme, "Hold Fast," Sunday morning at 11. At 7:30 p. m. his address will be "It is Finished." Sunday school will be at 9:45 and the MYF meeting at 6:30. Mrs. W. A. Barker will have charge of the Prayer service on the first Wednesday of the new year.

The pastor and Mrs. Young with their son, Russell, who is at home from the School of Pharmacy at Chapel Hill for the holidays, will spend a few days in Columbia and Cameron, S. C.

DR. W. A. HOOVER

Dr. Hoover Is President Of Medical Society

Dr. W. A. Hoover was elected president of the Cherokee county Medical Society at the regular meeting held at the health office Wednesday night. Dr. John S. Rodda, Andrews, was elected vice-president, and Dr. Chas O. Van Gorder also of Andrews was elected secretary-treasurer. Routine business was transacted and the possibilities of a hospital for Cherokee county were discussed.

Those attending the meeting were: Dr. Hoover, Dr. Rodda, Dr. Van Gorder, Dr. W. H. Scruggs of Andrews, Dr. F. V. Taylor, Dr. B. W. Whitfield and Dr. Harry Miller.

G. W. Hampton Celebrates His 90th Birthday

G. W. Hampton was honored on December 14, in celebration of his ninetieth birthday on Dec. 13 by a dinner party given by his only surviving daughter, Mrs. J. W. Dyer, with whom he makes his home. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Dyer and Mr. Hampton; seven sons, H. A., J. L., A. B., F. T., J. A., all of Murphy, G. D. of Knoxville, L. P. of Etowah, and their respective wives; W. B. Johnson, son of Mr. and the late Mrs. Blalock Johnson, Mr. Hampton's elder daughter; and the Rev. Alfred Smith. Place cards were designed by Mrs. Walter Coleman, a grand-daughter, and the dinner was served by Mrs. James Burch, Misses Lillian Hampton and Madge Hampton, grand-daughters, and Miss Ruby Hampton, great-grand-daughter. An enjoyable evening was spent with reminiscences and singing. The guest of honor in spite of his great age, is in possession of all of his faculties and he took keen interest in the festivities and was the life of the party.

Carringer Gives Recital At Club Meeting Here

Walter Carringer, son of Mrs. Ruth Carringer of Murphy, a music major at Western Carolina Teachers college, Cullowhee, was presented in a song recital at Murphy Woman's club meeting Wednesday afternoon, with Mrs. J. W. Davidson at the piano. Mrs. R. H. Foard, chairman of the music committee, was leader of the program and introduced Mr. Carringer.

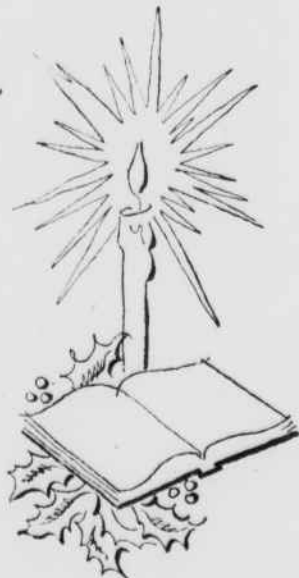

Mrs. T. S. Evans, president, presided at the business session, after which the program was opened with the group singing "Joy to the World", and the Christmas story from Luke read by Mrs. Foard. The meeting was closed with the singing of "Silent Night."

The room was decorated in keeping with the yuletide season, with silvered pine and pine cones, a silvered Christmas tree, and a large poinsettia plant.

Refreshments were served by Miss Jane Hill and members of her home economics classes.

O, come let us adore Him

Clear, sweet and strong the many voices of the choir rise as one to praise Him. For it is His birth date . . . anniversary of the beginning of a new concept of love and brotherhood for all mankind. We see again how He brought light into the darkness; how He fed the hungry, slaked the parched and healed the suffering. We sing again, psalms of joy in His coming . . . hymns of faith in His undying spirit . . . songs of love which are veritable paens of glory reverberating around the world to guide all His children toward an everlasting realization of Peace on Earth, Good Will to Men.

The Staff Of The Cherokee Scout

Picklesimer Wins Trophy

By WALTER CARRINGER

Ralph Picklesimer, halfback and captain of the Murphy Bulldogs, was selected as the outstanding player of the year and was presented with a trophy at the annual football banquet last Friday. "Pickle" was chosen by a committee of three local men, Jack Crawford, R. T. Alexander and J. W. Davidson. Jack Crawford made the presentation.

Ted Green and "Bull" Davidson were also considered for the award, but it was decided that as a general all around player Ralph was the number one Bulldog of the '46 season.

The trophy consisted of a player in punting position on a base which provides a gold plate for a future inscription. The trophy was very appropriately chosen since Picklesimer has done all the kicking for the Bulldogs this year. The award was given for the occasion by Tracy Oelkers.

Two other awards were also given during the evening to the two players who made the most progress during the year. These were presented to Ted Green, tailback, and Sam Stalcup, center.

GUESTS OF FRASCHES

K. Bloch of Northern Ireland, England, is spending the Christmas and New Year holidays as a guest of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Frasch.

Mr. Bloch recently has visited Dalton, Ga., chenille bedspread factories and plans to start such a factory in Northern Ireland using the same system, methods, and equipment as are used in the Dalton plants. Mr. Bloch operates a linen factory in North Ireland.

Dr. J. R. Bell will spend the holidays in Dillsboro with his mother, Mrs. P. W. Kincaid and Mr. Kincaid.

Bob Falling left Friday for New York City. He will spend the Christmas holidays there and in Detroit, Mich., with his mother, Mrs. Paul Davis and Mr. Davis.

Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Hornsby will spend the holidays with relatives in Memphis, Tenn.

SUNDAY SPEAKER — Dr. C. Darby Fulton, Executive Secretary of the Committee on Foreign Missions of the Southern Presbyterian Church, will be the speaker on the Presbyterian Hour next Sunday morning, December 29, at 8:30 A. M. E. S. T., over an independent network of southeastern radio stations.

Born in Japan of missionary parents, Dr. Fulton was educated in Presbyterian College in South Carolina, and took postgraduate work in the University of South Carolina. He received his theological training in Columbia Theological Seminary, and was graduated there in 1915. He was pastor for two years at Bunker Hill and Glassboro, New Jersey, in the Presbyterian Church, U. S. A., and has been in the Southern Presbyterian Church since 1917. Dr. Fulton served as a missionary in Japan for eight years, and in 1922 was called to be field secretary of the Executive Committee of Foreign Missions in Nashville, Tennessee. In 1922, he was called to his present post, and in the course of his work has traveled widely in all parts of the world where the Southern Presbyterian Church has foreign mission stations. Dr. Fulton has written for many magazines on the subject of missions, and is recognized as one of the leading authorities on foreign missions in America.

The subject of Dr. Fulton's address next Sunday morning will be, "The Chapter of the Church."

The program can be heard in this section over: WVN^C Asheville; WPTP, Raleigh; WSJS, Winston-Salem; WSB, Atlanta; WNOX, Knoxville; and WRVA, Richmond, 8:30 a. m. EST.