EARLINE W. ROGERS, Defendant.
NOTICE OF SERVICE BY PUBLICATION
The above named plaintiff, J. B. Rogers, will take notice that the defendant will, on Tuesday, April 1, 1947, at 10 o'clock, A. M., or as soon thereafter as will suit the convenience of the Court and Counsel, move before the Judge holding the March-April Term, 1947, Superior Court of Cherokee County to set aside the judgment in the above entitled cause, rendered at the June Term, 1946, of the Superior Court of Cherokee County, North Carolina, upon the ground that said judgment was procured by fraud and is an imposition upon the Court and the defendant in this cause, in that the plaintiff falsely, knowingly and fraudulently alleged in his complaint in said cause that the plaintiff and defendant had been separated for two years, the ground upon which he based his cause of action, and further that the plaintiff knowingly and falsely and fraudulently accompanied his said complaint in said cause by an affidavit stating that the allegations of the complaint in respect to the separation of plaintiff and defendant for two years prior to the bringing of the said action were true, when, as a matter of fact, plaintiff well knew that said allegations were false and untrue, and plaintiff well knew that said allegations were separated for the two year statutory period.

This the 10th day of February, 1947.

Creomulsion blends beechwood essence by special process with other time tested medicines for coughs. It contains no narcotics.
