Pickle School Held Thursday

Miss Ruby Scholz, food conservation specialist of N. C. State College, gave a pickle demonstration at the home economics department for home demonstration club women on Thursday of last week. Fifty-one attended from Cherokee and Clay counties.

The leader discussed brining cucumbers and making sweet and sour pickles, and the brining of beans and corn and making of sauer kraut.

May 25 To Be Observed As 4-H Church Sunday

Cherokee county churches in which 4-H club boys and girls hold membership have been asked to designate Sunday, May 25, as 4-H Church Sunday. The theme for the observance is, "The Conservation of Democracy," and pastors have been requested to bring a message on that subject.

Lemuel Goode and Miss Mary Cornwell, agents working with the 4-H clubbers, have mailed letters to the ministers, with a suggested outline for the program.

The 4-H club members are being urged to attend services on that Sunday particularly. The letter to the ministers stated: "Our clubs are an organization of rural boys and girls. In addition to teaching them better methods of agriculture and homemaking, we strive to improve them physically, mentally and spiritually."

TO GO ON TRIP

The Senior girl scouts met Monday and planned a trip to Persimmon Creek for Wednesday, May 21. The Scouts will leave Mrs. Harry Miller's house at 1 p. m. Girls who want to go on this trip must have a written permit from their parents.

Murphy Protests Discontinuing Train

Stamp 12 Valid For Sugar June 1

The Agriculture department announced Tuesday that Sugar ration stamp No. 12 for individual consumers will become valid June 1 instead of July 1 as originally planned. It will allow purchase of 10 pounds.

The department said that supplies from this stamp must last until Oct. 31 when price and rationing controls will expire unless extended by Congress.

Consumers ration stamp No. 12 is the second to be designated as a 10-pound sugar stamp. The first was No. 11 which became valid April 1.

Four-H County Council Plans Future Work

The 4-H county council met at the home agent's office Saturday morning and planned work for the coming months. Carolyn Smith, president, presided.

Plans were made for Achievement Day to be held in November. The group named the president, Carolyn Smith, to give a report of the year's work at the district Federation of Home Demonstration clubs in Waynesville, May 29.

Mildred Hendrix was selected to serve as a page for the Federation, representing Cherokee county clubs.

Plans were made for selling lunches at the Guernsey Sale in Murphy May 23.

Representatives from the county are planning to attend the 4-H club camp at Swanannoa in July, and 22 delegates will attend the 4-H short course in Raleigh Aug. 18-25.

Plans were made for a county dress review to be held in Murphy in July. The winner will participate in the state contest in August.

Announcement was made by Miss Mary Cornwell of a dairy foods demonstration for the district to be held in July.

The clubbers voted to serve lunch on May 27 to county farm agents of Eastern North Carolina who will come through there on a tour.

District Home Club Federation Is On May 29

The district Federation of Home Demonstration clubs will be held at the Methodist church in Waynesville May 29. A special bus to take Cherokee county women is being chartered. The theme of the program is, "Today's Home Builds Tomorrow's World."

Mrs. Phipps Heads Clothing Drive

As a part of the statewide drive for clothing, bedding, and shoes for overseas relief Mrs. W. A. Phipps, proprietor of Regal Hotel, who has been appointed county chairman, appealed to every person in Cherokee county to give these items generously. With the North Carolina general campaign running to May 31 the local drive is now under way.

Mrs. Phipps urges housewives, as they do their spring housecleaning, to give away as much as possible rather than store for the summer.

"By our giving now, Church World Service, overseas relief agency for 26 Protestant denominations can get the North Carolina donations overseas by early summer," she said. She called upon such establishments as shoe repair shops, department stores, textile mills, cleaners and laundries to donate unsalable, out-of-date, or uncalled

Southern Railway Company has applied to the State Utilities commission for permission to discontinue passenger trains Nos. 17 and 13, serving the Murphy branch. Many local people are protesting the action and appealing to the commission to deny the request.

Among the groups opposing the removal of the trains are: Murphy Lions club, The Cherokee Scout, Murphy Chamber of Commerce, Town of Murphy and Cherokee county.

In addition to the efforts being made locally to keep the trains, the Chambers of Commerce in Waynesville, Sylva, Bryson City, and Andrews are cooperating.

Lions Club Sees Esso Picture On North Carolina

Murphy Lions club saw the motion picture, "Meet North Carolina" produced by Standard Oil Company, at the meeting held in Methodist church basement Tuesday evening. Bob Taylor and W. A. Goodson of Standard Oil Company, and Loren Davis, owner of Davis' Esso station, arranged for the showing of the picture.

The club voted to protest the discontinuance of Trains 17 and 18 on Southern Railway from Murphy to Asheville, and the following committee was appointed by President R. S. Hault to get in touch with the Utilities Commission in Raleigh to voice the opposition of the club: C. R. Freed, H. G. Elkins, Joe Ray, P. G. Ivie, and C. E. Hyde.

Farmers Get $38,306 Under AAA Program

A summary of the soil building program in Cherokee county in 1946 has been released by the AAA County committee, and it shows that Cherokee county farmers received 6,279 tons of ground limestone to be used on cropland and pastures, 6,912 bags of 18% Phosphate, 5,817 pounds of Crimson Clover, 10,980 pounds of Rye Grass for cover crops and 438 bags of Austrian Winter Peas.

The farmers have received to date $13,432.84 in checks for practices carried out under the 1946 program, and there are some more checks to come.

This makes a total of $39,306.18 the farmers of Cherokee County have received under the 1946 AAA Program.

WOOD TO PREACH

The Rev. J. J. Wood, former pastor of Hampton Memorial church, will hold service there on the 4th Sunday morning at 11 o'clock, and decoration of the cemetery will be held.

Citing one example of how local people can contribute Mrs. Phipps stated that a cotton feed sack worth 20c in this country would bring $5 in Poland, where it would be used for diapers or underwear. Millions of persons overseas have had no underwear for several years and are wearing threadbare outer garments. Shoes are especially expensive, a pair of work shoes costing $50 up.

Proof that the goods "get there" is found in the thousands of thank-you letters received at the Church World Service Center, New Windsor, Maryland. In order that such notes come from overseas to the donors Mrs. Phipps urged all contributing to the drive to put notes of friendship in pockets and shoes. In this way actual receipts may come back and international friendship established.
