

Andrews Wildcats Open Season Friday

Coach "Al" Smith's, Andrews high school Wildcats, will officially open the 1947 Cherokee county grid season for the local football followers Friday afternoon, when the AHS eleven clash with the Robinsville Blue Devils. The encounter will be held in Andrews at the high school Athletic Field. The kick-off is scheduled for 2:30, and the contest will be the first game for both schools.

The Blue Devils are reported to be a fast breaking combination of gridsters with many lettermen to support the initial assault. They are also reported to be strong in every position and have considerable reserve strength. Their offensive power is said to be generated through a variety of formations.

To further the AHS coaching staff's problems, the Wildcats have been suffering a wild series of injuries that continually require alterations of the prospective lineup. The latest casualty of the scrimmage sessions is the loss of a first string fullback, Butler, who has been the powerhouse of the Wildcat assault. Several others of the squad of twenty-eight, have also been injured during the conditioning period and will be out of starting hopes.

Coaches Smith and Parker stated that most of the entire squad was green and inexperienced but they would be able to start a big and heavy line, but filling the gaps in the backfield may create a difficult problem for the Wildcat mentors.

The Wildcats will employ the single wing and the T against the Blue Devils, with Bradley, "Muss" Parker and Sam Webb doing most of the ball carrying for the "Cats".

Coach Smith mentioned his greatest problem would be to select a starting line-up for the set-to. He said, our boys appear a bit shabby around the edges and it is difficult to say just what the final outcome of the game will be. We naturally hope to come out with the winning margin. We'll see," he concluded.

Western Carolina Teachers College, Cullowhee, will supply the officials for the encounter.

The probable lineup to start against the Blue Devils for the Wildcats will be: Davis and Holder, at the ends; Gregory and Christy, will anchor the tackle positions; while Hawk and Holloway will support the Andrews eleven at guards. George will be the likely starting center and the backfield positions will see Bradley, Webb, B. Parker and M. Parker doing most of the ball handling.
