Konnaheeta Club To Sponsor Youth Night

ANDREWS — The Konnaheeta Club held its first regular meeting on September 18. The meeting, which was a picnic supper, was called at 6:00 o'clock on the lawn of Mrs. Wade Reece. A delightful supper was served by the hostesses, Mrs. Reece, Mrs. Alwayne Stratton, Mrs. Quay Herbert, Mrs. Sarah E. Chandler, Mrs. Margaret McCraney, Miss Gladys Christy and Miss Elizabeth Troxler.

The business meeting was then called to order by the new president, Mrs. Henry Trotter, and she welcomed the following new members into the Club: Mrs. Robert Heaton, Miss Meredith Whitaker, Mrs. Norma Lunsford, Mrs. Jack McCraney, Mrs. Hazel Olson, Miss Frances McPherson, Miss Elizabeth Troxler and Mrs. J. C. Lime.

Reports of the secretary and treasurer were read and accepted. The treasurer reported a balance of $323.50.

The committee working on organizing a Junior Woman's Club reported the younger women of the town were interested in such a Club.

Announcement was made of the District Club meeting to be held in Bryson City on September 20, at which meeting the Konnaheeta Club was to furnish special music.

The sponsoring of a Girl Scout Troop by the Club was discussed. The motion was made and carried that Miss Troxler be appointed as Club representative to work out something with the present Girl Scout leader, and the matter to be discussed more fully later. The Konnaheeta Club was also urged to give its moral support to the Boy Scout Troop in town.

The program committee reported the dates on which the various committees would have their programs.

Miss Jean Christy presented the request of the high school young people for the Club to sponsor Youth Night. A motion was made and carried and voted on to sponsor "Youth Night". The following committee was appointed to discuss this further with the P. T. A. and Supt. I. B. Hudson: Miss Jean Christy, chairman, Mrs. Gene Nichols, Mrs. Margaret McCraney, Mrs. Lucy Laughter, Mrs. Wade Reece and Mrs. Alwayne Stratton. A motion was made and seconded that the committee complete its plans and begin "Youth Night" as soon as it sees fit.

A card of thanks was read by Miss Gladys Christy, chairman of the sympathy committee, from Mrs. Elton Bradley.

There being no further business the meeting adjourned.

Joe Ray Speaks At Meeting Of Rotary Club

ANDREWS — Joe Ray, president of the Murphy Lions Club, supplied the program of the local Rotary Club at its meeting here September 18. Lion Ray urged closer cooperation between the Rotary Club and the Lions Club. He pointed out numerous ways in which this could be done. He presented the matter of Highway Association 129 to the Club, and told why he thought the Club should support the organization. Acting president Robert Heaton, promised to appoint a committee to represent Andrews at a forthcoming meeting of the Association at Vogel State Park near Neal's Gap on October 1, at 2:30 p. m.

Mr. Ray also explained the purpose of the gum machine which it was proposed to install in the business houses of various firms. All profits from the machines would go to the Lions' blind funds. The work which the Lions Clubs have done for the blind is outstanding and well known.

Lion Ray also, while here, arranged for a softball game between the Murphy Lions and the Andrews Rotarians on a return basis.

Lee Nichols Weds Miss Nancy Moody

ANDREWS — Miss Nancy Aileen Moody, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Smith Moody of Villa Rica, Ga., became the bride of Lee Nichols, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Nichols of Andrews, in a candle-light ceremony Monday, September 15, at 8:00 o'clock at the Methodist church in Villa Rica, with the Rev. Wallace Wiggins officiating, using the double ring ceremony.

The church was decorated with ivy, baskets of sun glow gladioli, pink asters and pink tapers in candelabra with fan-shaped fern arrangements forming a background.

A program of wedding music was presented by Fred Cleghorn, Jr., pianist, and Miss Peggy Eyer of Bristol, Tenn., soloist. Miss Eyer sang "At Dawning", "Ah! Sweet Mystery of Life" and "Because". Mr. Cleghorn played "I Love Thee" prior to the ceremony. The traditional wedding marches were used, and "Pomp and Circumstances" was played as the attendants entered. "Ave Maria" was played during the ceremony.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a gown of pink tissue taffeta of Victorian style, made with a fitted bodice, the full skirt extending into a short train and long sleeves ending in calfa lily points over the hands. Her veil of pink illusion was attached to a halo matching her dress. She carried an arm bouquet of pink roses showered with satin streamers.

Mrs. Martha Moody Holmes, sister of the bride, Milledgeville, Ga., was matron of honor. Mrs. Harris Harper, also sister of the bride, Milledgeville, was senior attendant. Both wore gowns of pink tissue taffeta with and off shoulder neckline, fitted bodice with full skirts extending into a slight train. They wore long mitts to match their dress and a coronet of pink flowers as headdresses. They carried large nosegays of mixed flowers showered with blue and silver streamers.

Miss Peggy Jo O'Neal, niece of the bride, of Madison, was junior attendant. She wore a gown of blue taffeta, the skirt overlaid with ruffles made of net with a sash of satin forming a bustle in the back. Little Lucy Lee Talley, niece of the groom, of Gadsden, Ala., was flower girl. Her dress was made identical to the junior attendant. They carried old-fashioned nosegays showered with pink and silver streamers.

Bill Candler, uncle of the groom was best man and usher-groomsman were Ivey Underwood of Macon, Ga., and Tommy Lee Peace of Atlanta.

Immediately following the ceremony the guests were entertained at a reception given by the bride's parents in the church parlor. In keeping with the wedding the pink and white motif was carried out in the room. After being greeted by the bride and groom, their parents and wedding party, the guests were served from a beautifully decorated bride's table which was centered with a pink three-tiered cake surrounded with miniature bridesmaids and tall pink tapers that made a fitting background for the cake cutting by the bride and groom. The table was covered with white edged with ivy and delicate pink bows. The pink color scheme was also carried out in the platters of dainty sandwiches, hors d'oeuvres, hand-decorated mints and punch. Mrs. R. E. O'Neal of Madison, Ga., acted as hostess and was lovely in a royal blue dinner dress trimmed in silver sequins. Miss Felicia Wilson kept the bride's book. Misses Valeria Morris, Erlene Tackett, Nell Pope and Mrs. Nell Hamrick Snelling assisted in serving.

The bride's mother wore a lavender dress with black accessories. Her corsage was of pink rosebuds.
