268 Children Eat In Lunchroom

ANDREWS—Supt. I. B. Hudson announces that 268 children ate at the Andrews lunchroom each of the 22 days lunches were served for the month of October. An average of 20 teachers also were served. An average of 20 free lunches were served daily. However, at this writing, fifty free lunches are served daily. Children pay 15 cents for lunches in grades first through the seventh. All upper grades pay 20 cents per lunch, and faculty members pay 25 cents per lunch.

The following free commodities in specified quantities have been received during the fall from the United States Department of Agriculture by way of the North Carolina Department of Agriculture, Marketing division: Irish potatoes, sweet potatoes, orange juice, and canned tomatoes.

Miss Lucile Bell is lunchroom manager. She has the following helpers: Mrs. Ethel Ammons, Mrs. Delila Hardin, Mrs. Kate Hogsed and Mrs. Lucy Mehaffey.

Miss Polly Hicks is lunchroom treasurer. Usual lunchroom expenditures and receipts amount to approximately $15,000 per year. The monthly income for October was $1276.29, while the expenditures were $1168.58.

The Marble lunchroom had a daily average of 47 children. Mrs. J. W. Bryson is manager and she is assisted by her husband, J. W. Bryson. Monthly income for the Marble lunchroom was $227.08, and expenditures were $257.75.

Mrs. Carrie Wilson spent the first of the week in Asheville with her sister, Mrs. Earl Orr, and her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wilson.

If a cow gets all the water she wants, she will give 8 to 15 per cent more milk.
