Junior Club Has Annual Banquet

The Murphy Junior Woman's club held its annual Christmas dinner meeting Thursday night at Duke's lodge. Fifty persons, including husbands and friends of the members, were in attendance. A turkey dinner with all the "fix-ins" was served.

The banquet table was decorated with red candles banked in holly. Small celophane bags of hard candy with Christmas tags were used as place cards.

Prior to the dinner, Mrs. Glenn Bates led the group in singing Christmas carols. Following dinner dancing and bridge were enjoyed.

Buddy Taylor has as his guest for the holidays, his school mate of Young Harris college, Jose Fernandez of Cuba.

Mrs. Davis Is Hostess To G. A.

The Intermediate G. A.'s of First Baptist church met Thursday afternoon at the home of their leader, Mrs. Kenneth Davis. The program was opened with the members singing "It Came Upon The Midnight Clear." Following that Nancy Coy read the scripture. Another song "Oh Little Town of Bethlehem" was sung. Mrs. Davis read a Christmas story. Gifts were exchanged among the members present. Those attending were: Peggy Savage, Barbara Reid, Peggy Baugh, Nancy Coy, Betty Sue Swain, Eulane Dockery, and Sally Barton.

BWC Entertained In The Ray Home

Mrs. J. W. Davidson and Mrs. Joe E. Ray were hostesses in the latter's home Friday evening at the Christmas program of the Business Woman's circle of First Baptist church. The home was decorated with Christmas decorations, including a Christmas tree, under which the members placed gifts as they arrived.

Mrs. R. D. Chandler was in charge of the program, which was entitled, "The First Christmas". Mrs. Chandler read the scripture and Mrs. J. J. Hamilton told the story of "The First Christmas". Christmas carols were sung.

The hostesses served molded ice cream, homemade cake and coffee.

Plans were made for sending gifts to a family in Germany that the B. W. C. has adopted, and the following were appointed by Mrs. John Donley, president, to serve on the committee: Miss Addie Mae Cooke, Mrs. J. J. Hamilton and Mrs. Roy Lovingood.

Scout Staff Guest At Annual Christmas Dinner

Miss Addie Mae Cooke entertained members of the Cherokee Scout staff at an annual Christmas dinner and party at her home Saturday night. The home was decorated with Christmas greens and lighted red and white candles, Santas and Snow men.

The turkey dinner was served in the dining room buffet style, after which the guests were invited into the living room where games and contests took place and gifts were distributed from a gaily decorated Christmas tree.

Santa Claus Visits School

Santa Claus visited Murphy schools Friday and was in the lunchroom during the noon lunch period, giving fruits to the pupils as they came in for their Christmas dinner.

The lunchroom, which is managed by Mrs. Myrtle Robinson, had been decorated with paintings done by Miss Addie Leatherwood's and John Jordan's seventh graders. A Christmas tree stood at one end of the room.

Mrs. R. H. Hyatt, fondly known as "Granny" Hyatt, and Miss Addie Mae Cooke were guests at this Christmas party.

Mrs. Vaught Is Auxiliary Hostess

Mrs. Ben Vaught was hostess for the annual Christmas party of the Presbyterian Woman's auxiliary at her home Friday afternoon.

The meeting was opened with prayer by the president, Mrs. Ed Brumby, and "A White Christmas" was sung by Mary Bolan Brumby, Carolyn Alexander and Carol Sue Vaught with Mrs. Vaught at the piano.

A short business session was held and the "Joy Gift" offering for Ministerial Relief was received. It was voted to send a Christmas basket to a needy family.

Mrs. Brumby read a story, "Seeking a Gift", by Zelia Margaret Walters. A contest, "Christmas Nuts to Crack" was held.

Christmas Party Held At Buecks

The Murphy unit of the North Carolina Education association held its Christmas party at the home of Supt. and Mrs. H. Bueck Thursday evening.

Miss Emily Sword read "How Come Christmas" by Roark Bradford, Miss Jean Penny sang "Sweet Baby Jesus" and "The Star of Bethlehem." Porter Raper sang "White Christmas", and the group sang Christmas carols.

After exchanging gifts refreshments were served.

The Bueck residence was decorated in Christmas greens, red carnations and lighted candles. A Christmas tree stood in the dining room.

Thirty five were present.
