Donkey Ball Game Scheduled Friday

Andrews — Andrews residents are in for a lot of fun on Friday when a donkey basketball game will be played here in the school gymnasium. The players in carrying on the game ride Mexican donkeys. There will be an afternoon series of games at 1:30 o'clock as follows:

- Teachers vs Andrews P. T. A. Seniors vs Juniors (Boys)
- Seventh grade vs Eighth grade (Girls)

At night beginning at 7:30 the following games will be played: Rotarians vs Konnaheeta club High School Varsity vs "Roughriders". (Women) High School Varsity vs "Oldtimers" (Men) Mason vs Town Aldermen The press agent calls this donkey basketball game "The Funniest Circus On Earth". Judging from the two other appearances of the donkey games in Andrews in the last fifteen years this is not much of an overstatement.

The feature game of the afternoon will be when the doughty teachers ride against the lusty P. T. A. team.

Also much in the public discussion now are two of the evening games that will literally be packed with thrills, (spills) and surprises. Topping the list is the Rotary club-Konnaheeta club game. It remains yet to be seen as to which of these organization will excel in horsemanship.

A lot of money is also being placed on the Masons-Town Aldermen contest. Fraternity Vs. Politics will be a natural.

ANDREWS—The Rotary Club meeting here Thursday of last week was more similar to a meeting of Wall Street brokers than to typical hand-shaking and back-slapping Rotarians.

D. Gerald Almond, in charge of the drive for funds in the town for Boy Scout work, sounded off with the announcement that he and his lieutenants had collected a total of $369.50 for the Scout cause. J. C. Lime was commissioned by the club directors a few days ago to head a drive for Rotary International Foundation funds. Lime took the challenge just as if the directors meant what they said, and walked out of the meeting only after a 20 minute speech and raising $230. for the foundation.

MARKETING with Marjorie

Does a casserole play a leading role in your kitchen? It does in mine... especially during Lent, when I serve lots of noodles, beans and other foods with "baking ways." Let me tell you how I fix my favorites.

HAVE OODLES OF NOODLES!
You needn't empty your purse to enjoy Lenten dishes that fill you up. Just make them with A&P's thrifty ANN PAGE NOODLES. Grand dozens of ways! For instance: Combine 1 cup coarsely broken, uncooked ANN PAGE BROAD NOODLES, a 5 oz. can of shrimp, 1 medium onion (sliced), 1 green pepper (sliced), 1 cup peas, 1/2 tsp. salt, dash pepper, 2 1/2 cups tomatoes (a #2 can) and 2 tbsps. margarine. Place in 1 1/2 qt. casserole; cover and bake in moderate oven, 350° F., about 50 minutes. Serves 4 to 5.

SLICK SAINT PAT-TRICK
For a touch of green on March seventeen, make sandwiches Emerald Isle style. Here's how: Place 2 1/2 slices of A&P's quick-melting CHED-O-BIT CHEESE FOOD on each slice of bread. Cut a green pepper crosswise in 1/4-inch slices, and arrange shiamrock-fashion on cheese. Broil 5 minutes, or till cheese is melted.

HERE'S YOUR EYE CUE!
To help your family see better in dim light, better see that they get enough vitamin A by serving carrots often. And if you're in the dark as to new ways to fix them, try this: Beat 3 eggs. Add 2 1/2 cups grated raw carrots, 1 1/2 cups of A&P's WHITE HOUSE EVAPORATED MILK, 1 tsp. salt, 1/2 tsp. pepper, 1/2 cup chopped walnuts and 2 tbsps. melted shortening. Pour into greased 1 1/2 qt. casserole; set in pan of hot water and bake in moderate oven, 350° F., till set (about 1 1/2 hrs.). Serves 6 to 8.

CABBAGE-HEAD-LINER!
Want a money-saver that's full of flavor? Line a 1 qt. casserole with 2 cups of shredded cabbage; add 1 cup of tomato juice and a 1 lb. can of tasty ANN PAGE BEANS from the A&P, and bake in a hot oven, 400° F., 50 to 60 minutes. 4 servings. P.S. If you're not observing Lent, place 2 or 3 bacon slices over beans before baking.
