Granny Hyatt, 88 Has 22nd Birthday

Mrs. Henry Hyatt, Mrs. P. C. Hyatt, and Mrs. C. A. Brown of Andrews, were hostesses Sunday at the home of Mrs. R. H. Hyatt, at a birthday dinner honoring Mrs. Hyatt, 88, lovingly known to all her friends as "Granny Hyatt", on her 22nd birthday anniversary.

Mrs. Hyatt was born Miss Ida May Abbott, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Abbott at Tellico Plains, Tenn., February 29, 1860. She moved with her parents to Murphy when a little girl and was married on Oct. 2, 1878, to the late R. H. Hyatt, known for many years as "Uncle Bob" Hyatt. She is living in the home built nearly 50 years ago by her father. The house for several years was operated as a hostelry under the name of "Cottage Park Hotel." It is located in a beautiful grove of pines and oaks on Valley River avenue, about two blocks from the public square.

The home was decorated throughout with a profusion of gift flowers. The table, spread with a white linen cloth, was centered with a three-tiered white birthday cake bearing 22 tiny white candles in green rose holders, on a reflector, encircled with green vines and yellow flowers, and flanked by yellow candles in silver holders. Places were marked with small white and yellow baskets filled with green mints.

Dining with Mrs. Hyatt were: Her daughter, Mrs. C. A. Brown and Mr. Brown; her sons, Henry and P. C., and their wives; her grandson, Charles Hyatt and wife and daughter, Mary Linda; her daughters-in-law, Mrs. Willa Mae Hyatt and daughter, Betty Jo of Warne; and Mrs. Roberta Hyatt and daughters, Billie Hyatt and Mrs. J. C. Nave, and Mr. Nave of Asheville, Dale Lee, Miss Kate Hayes, Miss Leila Hayes, Miss Estelle Bennett and Miss Ann Jenkins of Murphy.

Mrs. Hyatt is the oldest member of the Murphy Presbyterian church, which was founded by her father, the late J. D. Abbott.

Many friends called during the day to extend greetings and bring gifts to Mrs. Hyatt.
