Know Your Teacher

By BOYD ROBINSON

ANDREWS—Mrs. Albert G. Brown teaches one of the three sections of the fourth grade. Mrs. Brown holds her A certificate in grammar grade education and her B. S. degree from WCTC, Cullowhee.

Mrs. Brown is a native of Andrews and is a graduate of the local high school. She was president of her senior class.

Mrs. Brown started her teaching career in the fall of 1930 at Bethel school which was located about two miles below Unaka. Bethel was a one-teacher school and Mrs. Brown taught all seven grades. School started early in the fall and by teaching some on Saturday, the six months term was completed by Christmas. After the Christmas holidays Mrs. Brown returned to Cullowhee for the next six months for additional college training. During these six months Mrs. Brown stayed in Reuben Robertson Hall and was president of the House Government association.

In the meantime, the little Bethel school had been consolidated with the Unaka school and Mrs. Brown was transferred with school to Unaka where she taught the third and fourth grades. Although, the Bethel school had been moved to Unaka, it was requested that the teacher board in the Bethel community and go back and forth to school with the pupils. The children and the teacher rode on a wagon drawn by mules. The driver was Jack Shackelford. When it rained the wagon resembled the covered wagon used in the Westward Movement. This was in 1931-1932.

The next two years Mrs. Brown taught all seven grades in the Little River Hill school and went to Cullowhee the months that were left after the school term closed.

The above four years of teaching were done under A. L. Martin, County Superintendent at that time. Mrs. Brown held an Elementary A certificate at this stage of the game.

In 1934-1935 with a B certificate, Mrs. Brown had her first year's experience in the Andrews elementary school under Superintendent J. J. Stone, and for two years taught a mixed group of fourth and fifth grade bus children. The following year she was given one section of the fourth grade and remained in this position until 1942-1943.

Mrs. Albert G. Brown was known as Miss Addilee Battle prior to her marriage in 1940. Mrs. Brown was given a Leave of Absence from the teaching profession in 1943-1944.

Mrs. Brown re-entered the teaching field in Andrews in 1944-1945 and has been teaching here since that time.

Mrs. Brown is a teacher with various and sundry experiences. She has been in every New England state except Maine, and has been in every state that lies between North Carolina and Texas. She has also visited in Oklahoma and Kansas. While the Bretton Woods Conference was in session Mrs. Brown visited Mt. Washington House. However, she hastens to remark that she was not an official delegate at this conference. Mrs. Brown has spent several Christmas vacations in Florida, attended the Texas Centennial in 1936, attended the World Fair in New York in 1939, and has made a trip into Canada each year since the summer of 1940.

While Mrs. Brown's husband was with the Maps and Survey Department of the T. V. A. in New York state, Mrs. Brown did observation work in Madison School in Syracuse, N. Y. The Madison School is a problem school composed of white and colored children. Mrs. Brown did six hours of Business Education while doing research work in the Library of the University of Syracuse. She also did some observation work in the Baker Library operated by Dartmouth college, Hanover, N. H. She has done observation work in Hanover Graded school, Hanover, N. H. This is one of the most progressive schools in that state.

Mrs. Brown is very active in the school community. She has held various offices in the local NCEA, is superintendent of the Cradle Roll in one of the local churches, assistant director of Bible school last summer, and is identified with many other community activities.

The Brown's daughter is known as "Patty Jane."

Mr. and Mrs. Hilton Luther spent last week-end here with Mr. Luther's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Luther.

Boyd B. Robinson, principal of the Andrews Elementary school, spent last week end with his mother, Mrs. Mary Willie Robinson, Maiden.
