Mildred Barker, Mr. Ray Are Wed

ANDREWS—Miss Mildred Barker, daughter of Mrs. John Barker of Andrews, became the bride of Ben L. Ray, of Asheville and Andrews on Wednesday, May 12 at 3 o'clock at the Presbyterian Church.

The Rev. J. C. Lime, pastor, performed the ceremony in the presence of members of the families and close friends.

The altar was decorated with floor baskets of white gladioli and snapdragons against a background of native greenery with an eleven-branched candelabra flanked on either side by two seven-branched candelabra holding white tapers.

A program of wedding music was presented by Mrs. Robert Heaton. Prior to the wedding she played "My Heart At Thy Sweet Voice" by C. Saint-Saens; "To Spring" by Grieg; "To the Evening Star", R. Wagner; and "Indian Love Call" by Rudolf Friml. During the ceremony Schubert's Serenade was played. The traditional wedding marches were used.

The bride, given in marriage by her brother-in-law, J. Frank Walsh, of Marble, N. C., wore a two-piece suit of white gabardine with white accessories. Her corsage was a single purple throated white orchid.

Miss Fannie Barker, sister of the bride, was the only attendant. She wore a dress of aqua crepe with white accessories and a shoulder corsage of pink rosebuds.

The mother of the bride wore a navy blue dress of crepe and a corsage of pink roses and delphiniums.

John Pullum, close friend of the groom, served as best man. Ushers were L. B. Nichols and Edwin Bristol.

Following the ceremony a reception was given by the Presbyterian Auxiliary Circle in the parlor of the church. The bridal table was covered with an Irish lace cloth centered with a three-tiered wedding cake and crystal bowls of gladioli, snapdragons and delphiniums with silver holders holding white candles on each end. Mrs. Harry Young of Nantahala, presided at the punch bowl. Assisting in serving were Mrs. J. C. Lime, Mrs. Ruthie Bristol, Mrs. L. B. Nichols and Mrs. Tom Hay.

Mrs. C. W. Brown was in charge of the bride's book. After the reception the couple left by motor for a wedding trip to Daytona Beach, Fla.

Mrs. Ray is a graduate of Andrews high school and for the past several years has been connected with the Citizens Bank & Trust Company where she holds a position as cashier.

Mr. Ray, for the past few years, has been in charge of the Andrews Quarry.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray expect to make their home in Andrews.
