Harrell West With Eighth Army In Tokyo

WITH THE EIGHTH ARMY IN TOKYO: Private First Class Harrell West, 19, son of Mr. and Mrs. Louie O. West of Andrews, is motor transport driver in the 15th Quartermaster Troop, 1st Cavalry Division, in the occupation of Japan.

Pfc. West has just completed and qualified in an intensive course in air transportability. He now knows, in part of what he learned, the uses of the double half hitch, the Baker Bowline, and the slippery hitch. Packing cargo so it will stay put but is available for quick unloading is now one of Pfc. West's qualifications for future use in life.

The 1st Cavalry Division, under the command of Major General William C. Chase, occupies the ten prefectures of the Tokyo-Yokohama area, the heart of Japan.

The 15th Quartermaster Troop is required to keep the division supplied and maintain services for the division.

Pfc. West enlisted in the Army in January, 1947, completed training at Fort Lewis, Wash., and came over to join the 1st Cavalry Division in Japan in August, 1947.

Mr. and Mrs. Hubert B. Mulkey have returned to their home in Baltimore, Md., after a visit with Mr. Mulkey's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Mulkey. They were accompanied home by Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Mulkey who spent a few days there.

Boarding Houses Change Operators

Mrs. H. G. Smith, who for the past seven and a half years has operated the Maples, boarding house here, has leased the Henry House, which for a number of years was operated by Mr. and Mrs. Duke Whitley, and is now open for business. Mrs. Smith will take regular boarders and also serve meals to the public.

Mrs. Harve Carringer and Mrs. Olen Davis have taken charge of the Maples and will be open for business on the 15th. They will take roomers and serve meals.

APPROVED

The Minimum Foundation Program for Education was unanimously approved by citizens of Young Harris at a community meeting this week.

The members of the community came together in a meeting at the elementary school for the purpose of discussing matters of civic interest. It was at this time that they adopted the program. The Minimum Foundation Program was branded as "a must" for the educational advancement of the State, and all persons expressed a willingness to lend moral support in getting it before the people.

It was announced by Mrs. Carter Berry, president of the Community Club, that all citizens of the community have been called upon by Mayor C. D. Corn to observe the week of July 26 as "Clean-up Week".

Young Harris is participating in the Atlanta Chamber of Commerce Improvement Contest and is proclaiming a clean-up week in keeping with the practice established by other communities in Georgia. It was pointed out that all members of the community may participate in this program by doing anything that will promote an improved appearance in the town.
